

Philipsborn

THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP
608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET

Open Daily From 8:15 to 6.

A complete stock of the season's authoritative models
now on display at our usual
moderate prices.

Every department is fairly bursting with fresh, reasonable merchandise.

The importance of early buying is a vital issue this season.

Fur prices are increasing so tremendously that many of our best models cannot be duplicated except at substantially higher prices, because of the fur trimmings.

Many lines of woolens are already very, very scarce (due to the dye situation), which means much higher prices later on.

Buy now—it means lower prices, and better attention than is possible during rush season.

Styles are right—prices are right—the weather is right—do that fall shopping now.

Women contemplating fur purchases are urgently advised to buy now. You will not be able to do as well later on for the same select pelts, as prices are advancing daily. Now you get the benefit of our early buying—later on you will have to pay considerably more.

Society

RECENT VISITOR FROM NEW YORK.

MISS M'LEISS PARTRIDGE.
Who was the guest of Miss Louise McLoughlin of Chevy Chase.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

The British Ambassador Returning From Summer Embassy at Beverly.

Russian Embassy Opens Sunday. Gage-Lippitt Marriage in Paris. Weddings of Note.

The British ambassador, Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice, is expected to arrive at the embassy today or tomorrow. Lady Spring-Rice and their children will not accompany him.

The ambassador of Russia and Mme. Bakmeteff are expected to return to the embassy Sunday afternoon. Members of the embassy staff have arrived from Newport, coming direct from the summer embassy, while the ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff are visiting in New York.

Senator Henry F. Lippitt announced from his home at Providence, R. I., last night the marriage of his daughter, Miss Frances Lippitt, to Brig. Gen. Moreton Gage of the British army, in Paris Saturday, September 30. Brig. Gen. Gage was attached to the British embassy here as military attaché, and with his wife and children became prominent factors in society. At the outbreak of the war Brig. Gen. Gage, then a colonel, volunteered for service, and leaving Mrs. Gage and their children in this country, went to England. Mrs. Gage died in this country, and her children went to live temporarily with their maternal grandmother, a wealthy New York woman. Brig. Gen. Gage is a cavalry officer commanding a division of Indian troops in France.

Miss Lippitt went to Europe some months ago and took a prominent part in Red Cross work. She returned to this country to take a more thorough course in nursing and again sailed for France in the company of Miss Katherine Dorr of Boston. As Miss Lippitt is the bride of one of the most popular members of Washington society, and during the Taft administration one of the most intimate friends of Miss Helen Taft and a constant visitor at the White House, Senator Lippitt was married to Mrs. Gage's younger sister, Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, in April, 1915.

Mrs. Gage will continue to interest herself in Red Cross work in France.

Mrs. Joseph C. H. Colquitt is entertaining at a tea this afternoon at her apartment at the Chevy Chase Club. In attendance will be Miss Harriet R. Colquitt, sister of Mr. Colquitt, who leaves tomorrow for her home in Savannah, Ga.

Yellow dahlias and golden rod will form the decoration.

Miss George Worthington, Jr., and Mrs. Julian B. Bolling will preside at the tea table, and Miss Delphine Heyl, sister of the hostess, will also assist.

A wedding of great interest will take place at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Kirkwood Fulton, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Fulton of Glasgow, Scotland, will become the bride of Mr. Sidney Pietro Taliaferro.

The ceremony will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Daniel Frasier.

Rev. Robert Coe of the First Congregational Church will perform the ceremony in a bower of white heather erected in the drawing room.

Mrs. Daniel Frasier Fulton of Yonkers, N. Y., will be the matron of honor.

Miss Jacquelin Taliaferro Smith, niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Helen White of Stamford, Conn., sisters of the bride, will hold ribbons to form an aisle.

Mr. Roland Croxton will be best man and little Van Taliaferro Smith the ring bearer.

Mrs. Taliaferro and his bride will reside at Fulton Court on their return from their wedding trip.

Brig. Gen. Erasmus M. Weaver and Mr. Joseph E. Davis entertained a tea at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club last evening in honor of Col. Richard P. Davis, who leaves today, with Mrs. Davis, for Fort Winfield Scott, Cal.

Many new fall costumes were worn at the horse show at Bryn Mawr yesterday. A lovely trio of keen enthusiasts were Mrs. Charles A. Munn, Mrs. William Hill of Washington and Mrs. W. Frazer Harrison. Over a flock of white broadcloth Mrs. Munn wore a dashing cloak of bivouac red broadcloth, and a large hat of a deeper shade of red. A smart sports hat of deep green felt made an artistic color note, with the pale gray sports suit, worn by Mrs. Hill. Mrs. Harrison had on a good looking sports suit of pale blue cloth, and a white hat. She wore white furs.

Miss Martha Rebecca Knott, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Knott of Wesley Heights, and Mr. Samuel Matthew Orison of Leesburg, at a luncheon yesterday, when Mrs. Howry was hostess. Among the guests were the Duchess of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander B. Julian of Cincinnati, Miss Isabelle May, Mrs. F. De Witt Talma, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Woolley, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Wall, Mrs. Edwin Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Slocum, Misses Josephine McClure, Elizabeth Hayes and Anne Henry, Mrs. James Walker, Mrs. Henry Eulst, Mrs. J. L. Hill and George W. Stevens.

Mrs. McDonald has spent several seasons at the Sherham, coming from New York, and will be in Washington this week.

Mrs. Thetia W. Sims and Miss Marie Sims, wife and daughter of Representative Sims, will return to their residence on Leroy place about the middle of the month, after passing the summer at their home in Tennessee.

Mrs. Julian James left Washington this morning for a two weeks' visit at Atlantic City. She will return here October 18, in time to be present at the opening of the Theodorus Bailey Myers Mason house, which she has presented to the woman's section of the Navy League, which will be opened on the afternoon of that day.

Miss Isabel May, a feted guest at the White Sulphur Springs for the autumn season, is daily on the golf course, and an admirable adversary for the Duchess of Manchester.

Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Reeves Russell, who passed the summer at their cottage at Sea Girt, N. J., have returned to Washington and opened their home on 18th street. Their twin daughters, Miss Irene and Miss Emily Russell, who are now the guests of Miss Marion Russell, the young daughter of Maj. Myers Mason, will return today.

Miss Mary Cook will come today from the country home in Virginia of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Merriam, with whom she has spent the summer, and will be the house guest of Col. and Mrs. Russell for a few days.

Viscount Jules Henri de Sibour has arrived at the Hot Springs, Va.

Lieut. Theodore Marburg, jr., of Baltimore, of the Royal British Flying Corps and Mrs. Marburg, who had expected to sail for England in September, have prolonged their stay in America, and are still the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Marburg, at their cottage at Chester, Nova Scotia. Lieut. Marburg, who was seriously wounded while on duty in France, was invalided home. On his return to Europe he expects to resume his military duties.

Miss Mary Ida Decker, daughter of Capt. Benton C. Decker, commanding the U. S. S. Washington, and Mrs. Decker, and Lieut. Glenn A. Smith, attached to the U. S. S. Dubuque, were married at Newport, R. I., today at noon at the United Congregational Church. Miss Anna Decker, a sister, was the bridesmaid, and Lieut. J. A. Brownell of the Dubuque acted as best man. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of Mrs. Reginald R. Belknap, after which the couple left for Chicago.

Miss Wallis Warfield and Lieut. E. Winfield Spencer, jr., U. S. N., of Pennsylvania, Pa., will be married in Baltimore Wednesday, November 8, at 6:30 o'clock, at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, the pastor, Rev. Edwin Barnes Niver, officiating.

The wedding will be one of the fashionable events of the autumn and there will be a number of guests from Washington, New York, Baltimore and Virginia, who will witness the ceremony.

Mrs. William Sturges of New York will be the matron of honor.

The bridesmaids will include Miss

Lella Gordon, daughter of Mrs. George Barnett of Washington, Miss Ethel Spencer of Highland Park, Chicago, sister of the bridegroom-elect; Miss Virginia Hughes of Norfolk, Miss Mercer Tallafiero of Upper Falls, Md.; Miss Emily Molano Merryman and Miss Mary E. Kirk of Baltimore, Mr. Dumaresq Spencer, who is a student at Yale University, will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be selected later.

Miss Warfield, with her mother, Mrs. John Freeman Rasin, is established now at Earl Court.

The former Governor of Alaska, Mr. W. R. Hoggatt of New York, is at the Willard for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Whitlock left Hot Springs for Washington, D. C., last night. They expect to leave New York late in October for France, where they will occupy their villa in Nice through the winter.

Franklin Perry Schofield, the son of (Continued on Ninth Page.)

FURNITURE, DECORATIONS, WALL PAPERS, ART OBJECTS, LIGHTING EFFECTS

—the kinds that beautify the home and give maximum service and satisfaction—at prices that compel interest.

A visit to our store is cordially invited. It entails no obligation to purchase.

RICHARD W. HENDERSON

Furniture—Decorations
1109 F Street N.W.
Phone Main 8266.
Established More Than Fifty Years

If You Want To Make Some One Happy Send Them a Box of Gude's Chrysanthemums

OR American Beauties
They Are Prettier Than Ever
Right Now
Flowers for Weddings

If you are ambitious to have your wedding an event of unusual attractiveness you should consult Gude about the flowers and floral decorations. Estimates and suggestions given.

Gude Bros. Co., 1214 F St.

Members Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association
Phones Main 4277, 4278, 4279

Quality Gifts for October Brides

Those in search of rich and appropriate wedding gifts invariably come to Schwartz, because of the splendid variety of fine Jewels, Diamonds, Silverware, Watches shown here, and the reasonableness of our prices.

Select whatever you desire, and pay the bill as convenient.

Chas. Schwartz & Son,

Jewelers & Silversmiths, 708 7th St.

The Mammoth Cloak and Suit House

J. E. Cunningham & Co.

316 7th St.

Remarkable Values Tomorrow

The Third Day of Our
Fall Opening Week
Fall Suits and Dresses
$19.95 Specially Priced $25.00

THE FINEST IN WASHINGTON

Great crowds are attending our Opening Week and fall wearing apparel is going fast. These new arrivals are just in time for the Midweek Sale.

Oh, So Good!

That's the expression you'll hear all over town about our candies.

25c to 80c the pound

Smith's Cor. 12th & G N.W.

Phone Main 3550.

THE LOUVRE

1115-1117 F STREET

Women's and Misses' Outerwear and Millinery

Store Hours: 9 to 6 Daily

Every Suit Model Is a Special Design

We want you to feel the protection you have in the exclusiveness of Louvre models—as well as in Louvre qualities. The designs are selected with greatest care, to qualify with the best effects of fashion—so that your selection is sure to be supremely satisfactory.

Velours, Bolivias, Broadcloths, Velvets, Poiret Twills, Gabardines, Jersey Cloths, etc.—for dressy wear, or the Golfing and Sport requirements.

$24.50, $27.50, $29.50, $34.50, $37.50, $39.50, $42.50, up to $95.00

Every increase in price denotes a consistent increase in quality—all based on our moderate marking.

Coats in Great Variety

In models and fabrics suited to the service they will be given—Street, Afternoon, Evening, Sport and Motoring.

Velours, Bolivias, Jerseys, Broadcloths and Wool Plushes—in very attractive patterns and new models—plain or trimmed with the popular furs.

$19.50, $22.50, $24.50, $29.50, up to $90

You will find our service most comprehensive, and our range of sizes equal to every demand.

Dresses of Many Types

Following faithfully the prescribed styles in design—featuring Serges in abundance, and giving you also plenty of Georgettes, Satins, Charmeuse to select from—plain and in combination.

Really a remarkable showing.

$19.50 to $75.00.

500 New Victrolas Will Make Happier 500 Homes At Christmas

The Victrola Club Is the Channel for Enjoyment and Higher Education in the Home.

Our idea of establishing the Christmas Victrola Club, was to make it a channel for 500 members to easily and conveniently own a Victrola of unchallenged worth.

THE FEE, $1.00.
The Victrola delivered at once or reserved for Christmas delivery.

The Victor Library embraces several thousand Records—perfect reproductions of the voices and instruments of artists who made their fame and do their best work in making records for the Victrola.

Call today and ask about details.

E. F. Droop & Sons Co.

1300 G Street Steinway Pianos. Player-Pianos.

JAMES B. HENDERSON

FORMERLY OF F. STREET—NOW LOCATED AT 1108 G STREET, N.W.

For More Than 50 Years

This house has stood for quality and distinction in Furniture, Draperies, Laces, Wall Paper, Painting, Decorating and Upholstering.

A visit to our showrooms places you under no obligation.

A phone call, Main 7676, will bring our representative to see you; color sketches and estimates cheerfully furnished.

The House of Fashion

Leverton's

1106 G Street
Individuality and Quality at Moderate Cost

Over One Thousand Models in Fall and Winter Suits

A Wonderful Display

Presenting every fashionable material, color and size.

Fur-Trimmed, Plain Tailored, Fancy Styles

Handsome Exclusive Models
$25, $29.50, $35, $39.50 to $100

Hundreds of Coats

For All Occasions

Smart Styles. All Fabrics.
$16.95, $25, $29.50 to $85

| | |
|---|------------------------------------|
| Smart Styles in Serge and Combination Dresses | Beautiful Models in Satin and Silk |
| $15 $19 $25 | $19 $25 $35 to $85 |

Leverton's Exclusive Trimmed Hats,
$5, $7.50, $10 & $15

Copies of the Most Expensive Paris Models—One of a Kind.

Five Thousand New Fall Waists, $1.98 to $18

New York Washington Paris

Julius Garfinkle and Company

Store House: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

We Direct Your Attention to Our Displays of Everything That Is Newest and Most Charming in

FALL AND WINTER COSTUMING

Reflecting the smartness of style and beauty of fabrics and trimmings decreed vogue by the foremost Paris designers.

SUITS, DRESSES, COATS, WRAPS, MILLINERY, FURS, WAISTS, ACCESSORIES and REQUISITES, SCHOOL AND COLLEGE APPAREL FOR GIRLS AND MISSES

Exceptionally charming new stocks at moderate prices have been assembled with great discrimination to meet all requirements of day and evening.

F Street Corner Thirteenth