in All Departments.

The scarce things elsewhere are plentiful here—and marked much more reasonably than their exclusiveness and scarcity justify.

The scarce "Burgundy" shade is represented in scores of suit and coat models—also the very scarce "Bolivia" fabric.

Our direct New York and Paris connections keep us well posted on style tendencies—that's why we are so well prepared.

We are authorized Washington agents for "Golflex" sports apparel and "Hickson" suit reproductions and are now showing their prettiest fall models.

In spite of the advanced prices in most stores we are still able to quote the same moderate prices for which we have long been famous.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Secretary of Treasury and Mrs. McAdoo Have Opened Home for Season.

The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo have arrived at their home, 2139 R street, and opened it for the season. Mrs. McAdoo, who was ill at Spring Lake, N. J., where they had a cottage for the summer.

her uncle, Mr. Harry Cunningham, wore a gown of white net over crepe de chine and velvet, and her tulle veil was wreathed with orange blossoms. Miss Mary Louise Erhey, the maid of honor, wore a gown of canary-colored faille, trimmed with tulle, and a large picture hat. Mr. William B. Snyder of Shepherdstown, W. Va., was best man. Following the wedding, a reception was held in the parlors of the church, which were effectively decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will be at home to their friends, after November 1, at 213 A street southeast.

Holy Comforter Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, when Miss Dorothy Gibson became the bride of Mr. William C. Murphy. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Clarence E. Wheeler, and was followed by a nuptial mass. The sanctuary was banked with palms and mer, has quite recovered, and will be able to resume her official social duties when the season opens. The return of the Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo and the arrival at noon today of the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson from the Jersey coast almost completes the cabinet circle, the Secretary of Interior and Mrs. Lane and the Secretary of Agriculture being the absentees. The cabinet members will, however, be but transient at the capital until after the election.

Announcement has just been made of the appointment of Commander Emmanuel Aubin de Blanpre as naval attaché to the embassy here, to succeed Commander Antonin Martin, who has been at this post for some time. Commander de Blanpre was attached to the embassy in Washington six years ago and was a popular member of society. He will arrive here within a few days and will be accompanied by Mme. de Blanpre, who has a charming voice, and is an accomplished musician. The appointment means the departure for France of Commander and Mme. Martin, and the presence of the former at the front. They, too, are popular in Washington society, though the war in Europe has precluded their taking a very active part.

As the season advances each day finds many Washingtonians returning to their homes, and dates for the various debut parties, the events of paramount interest at this time, are being rapidly decided upon.

Unusual effort is being made not to have two or more debutantes presented on the same afternoon, as was the case last year. To avoid this the dates are being given out much earlier than has been the custom in other years, and already three definite dates have been selected and a number of tentative ones as well. The first debutante of the season, as announced thus far, will be Miss Anne Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nevil Monroe Hopkins, who will make her bow at a tea on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day.

Tuesday, December 5, Miss Emily Kutz, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles W. Kutz, will be presented at a large tea at the Washington barracks, at which Mrs. Gustave Lukesh will be hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Johnson have selected Wednesday, December 6, for the debut of their daughter, Miss Nellie Johnson, who will be presented at a tea at the family residence on 16th street.

Mrs. Joseph Daniels, who returned to Washington Sunday from North Carolina, was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Cora Bagley, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Alford. Miss Bagley is in Washington for the winter, and Miss Alford for only a few days.

Prince Andrea Boncompagni of Rome, whose engagement to Miss Margaret Preston Draper was announced yesterday, has arrived in Washington, and will probably be in Washington the greater part of the time until after the wedding October 25.

William A. Street and his daughter, Miss Susan W. Street, on their return from Newport, will come to Washington to visit his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Eustis, who are leaving Newport this week. Mr. Street and Miss Street spent the early summer at Cornish, N. H., where they occupied Hilda's residence, the estate which served as President Wilson's summer residence for several years.

Mrs. Joseph Henry Eagle, wife of Representative Eagle of Texas, and their children have returned to Washington from Deer Park, Md., where they spent the summer, and are at the Raleigh. Mr. Eagle will return to Washington late in November.

Mrs. William A. Rodenberg, wife of Representative Rodenberg of Illinois, and their children have returned after spending the latter part of the summer and early autumn at Mountain Lake Park.

An interesting wedding of yesterday afternoon was that of Miss Ruth Henshaw Freeman, daughter of the late John Thomas Freeman, and Mr. Peter Frederick Snyder of Kelo, Wash. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock at the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Paul Robinson Hickey officiating. Mrs. Harry Cunningham played the wedding music. The bride, who was given away by shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Lillian Beck, the maid of honor, wore pale yellow charmeuse with an overdrapery of georgette and lace, and her bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. Stephen P. Murphy, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Mr. L. Gibson, Dr. C. J. Murphy, Mr. F. Beck and Mr. H. Buscher were the ushers.

A breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gibson, when the newly married couple were assisted by receiving by Mrs. Gibson, mother of the bride, who wore a gown of navy blue crepe meteor, with a black hat, and Mrs. Murphy, mother of the bridegroom, whose gown was of blue charmeuse, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left later for Atlantic City, the latter wearing a navy blue taffeta dress, with a plush coat trimmed with fur, and a black picture hat. They will reside at 217 Tennessee avenue northeast on their return.

Miss Lorena Rouse, daughter of Mr. A. A. Rouse and Mr. George J. Schoeneman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schoeneman of Newport, R. I., were married yesterday at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ernest Lee, on B street northeast.

The ceremony was followed by a breakfast. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of brown broadcloth and a hat of cream velvet, fur, gold and tiny rhinestones, with a corsage bouquet of yellow roses. Mr. Charles Schoeneman was best man for his brother-in-law, Mr. Ernest Lee, and Newport, and upon their return will entertain at a reception on October 17.
