Frost-Dewey.

The marriage of Miss Grace Marguerite Dewey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyster H. Dewey, and Dr. Carl G. Frost of Buffalo, N. Y., took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock, in Gunton-Temple Presbyterian Church.

Quantities of white dahlias and palms were used in the decoration of the church, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. C. Everett Granger.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine, the bodice and skirt trimmed with pleated satin ribbon and pearl ornaments. Her long court train of brocaded satin was held at the waist. She wore a tulle veil wreathed with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Dewey attended her daughter as matron of honor, wearing the gown in which she was married of white brocaded satin, combined with pique satin and trimmed with pearls. She wore a wreath of white roses in her hair and carried a bouquet of bride roses.

The maids of honor were Miss Pauline

Frost of Buffalo, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Dashiell. The former wore a gown of rose-pink tulle trimmed with silver lace, while the latter was in pink satin, with opalescent trimming, veiled in pink tulle. They carried bouquets of bridesmaids' roses.

The bride's other attendants were: Mrs. Nelda Wood of Lynchburg, Va.; Miss Olive Frost of Buffalo, another sister of the bridegroom; Miss Lillian Everson of this city and Miss Ethel May Turner of Pittsburgh.

Their gowns were charming models of point d'esprit, with full skirt mounted over hoops and garlanded with marguerites. They wore tiny green silk jackets, made decollete, and carried bouquets of sunburst roses.

The little flower girls, Miss Ada Katherine Works and Miss Lorraine Frost, sister of the bridegroom, wore white mull dresses and carried baskets filled with fever few.

Mr. Allen Frost of Springfield, Ohio, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Carlos Bushnell of Buffalo, Mr. Henry Millford of New York, Dr. John Short of Philadelphia and Mr. James Pierce and Mr. Paul G. Russell of this city.

A large reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. White dahlias and smilax formed the decoration in the drawing room, and red dahlias and ferns were used in the drawing room.

Dr. and Mrs. Frost left late in the evening for their wedding trip. Mrs. Frost traveling in a tailored suit of blue broadcloth with a velvet hat to match.

They will be at home in Buffalo, N. Y., after November 1, at 1246 Hertel avenue.

The out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. William G. Frost of Montclair, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Frost and Miss Annette Frost of Atlantic Highlands and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Hubbard of Cleveland, Ohio.

Burgess-Armentrout.

Miss Elizabeth Armentrout and Mr. Samuel L. Burgess, both of Strasburg, Va., were quietly married at noon Friday, September 29, in the parlor of the Raleigh Hotel. The bride's attendants were Mrs. J. Robert Switzer of Harrisonburg, Va., and Miss Edith Campbell of this city. Those of the bridegroom were Mr. Lawson W. Armentrout of Winchester, Va., and Mr. Russell G. Nicklin of Alexandria, Va.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burgess left for an extended trip through the north and Canada.

W. B. Moses & Sons

F and 11th Sts.

This Fall's business so far has greatly exceeded our expectations. This, of course, is the result of two things. Large assortment of goods and splendid values. We have tried hard this year to give the best possible values, and by the volume of business our efforts must have proved successful. The month of September we devoted almost exclusively to Furniture, and the result was the best September we have ever had. This month we will hold a special sale in the rest of our Departments—Drapery, Art Needlework and Gift Shop, the Linen Shop and Carpet and Rug Departments. This week we will hold a special sale in Lace Curtains in our Drapery Department, first floor.
