RETURNS FROM WARRENTON, VA.

MRS. HOWELL PEEPLES.

Engagements.

Very interesting to Washington, especially to those affiliated with the last administration, was the announcement a few days ago of the engagement of Miss Mary Nagel, daughter of Mr. Charles Nagel, former Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and Mrs. Nagel, to Mr. Homer Loring Sweetser of Brookline, Mass. Miss Nagel, who is the second daughter of the former cabinet minister, was a school girl during the residence of the family in K street, where they lived throughout the Taft administration. She was very simply brought up, and had only occasional glimpses of the world of which her parents were a part, looking on at a New Year reception at the White House with other young people of the cabinet circle, or assisting occasionally at one of her mother's Wednesday afternoons at home. She revisited Washington a year ago last spring, when she was the maid of honor at the beautiful wedding at St. John's Church, in Lafayette square, of Miss Marjorie Van Buren, daughter of Mrs. Nelson Reed Johnson, and Rev. Stanley Matthews Cleveland. The Nagel family have been spending the summer, as usual, at their place at Marion, Mass. Mr. Sweetser is in the last year of his course at Harvard.

Mrs. Frank H. Clark announces the engagement of her daughter, Lydia Hodges to Paymaster William Gillmore Nell, U. S. N.

Mrs. Clark and her son, Commander Frank H. Clark, U. S. N., have taken an apartment at the Brighton for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eckstein of this city have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Esther Marie, to Mr. Emmer French Smallwood, Wednesday, October 18, at the rectory of the Holy Spirit Church, Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Dewey announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Hattie Van Arsdale Dewey and Mr. J. Howard McCauley.

A musical was given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gibson, 4127 New Hampshire avenue northwest. Those taking part in the program were Miss B. Clayton, Miss T. Brownwell, Mr. E. Gibson, Mr. E. Acorn, Mr. W. George, Master D. Bowersox, Miss C. Gibson, Miss M. Brownwell, Miss L. Nichols, Mr. Paul Hines, Mr. C. MacCallum, Mr. H. Tempis, Miss M. McCullum, Mr. L. Davies and William J. Oates.

A linen shower was given Thursday evening, October 12, in honor of Miss Viola Kabbeler, at the home of her brother, 2929 F street northwest.

Miss Kammerer is to become the bride of Mr. John Rustic Dunn Thursday, October 26, and will make her home in New York.

Among those present were Misses Florence and Jeanette Hughes, Mary Wright, Florence Dixon, Carrie Fuller, Alice Gramson, Ida Ritz, Leonida and Bernadine Leshner, Dulcie Provance, Hilda Johnson, Lula Thompson, Altha Eastwood, Agnes Maher, Gertrude Kaufman, Mignon Miller, Mary Gehart, Margaret Mills, Elbe Wagner, Rose Schmittman, Beatrice McCall, Blanche Marcey, Francis Easton, Lillian Smith, Mrs. J. S. Dickinson, C. Gooding, W. Keough, W. Serimanevur and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kammerer.

Mrs. Henry Carpenter Bolenius announces the engagement of her daughter, Lucie Browne Agnew to Andrew Whitney Bennett.

Mrs. Charles M. Lewis announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen Elizabeth to Mr. Philip Nichols Davison of Elmira, N. Y. The wedding, a very quiet home one, will take place October 24.

On Friday, October 13, Mr. and Mrs. Harlie Pece gave a miscellaneous show-er to Miss Valerie Mayer, whose marriage to Mr. Philip Barbour Newman takes place on October 25. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Music was the feature of the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Quincey Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George Lear, Mrs. Howard Cheney, Mrs. Horace Wilk, Mrs. Edward Bradeford, Miss Hesse Stamm, Miss Ruth Barbour, Miss Margaret Brand, Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, Miss Ella Fitzgerald, Miss Eddie Groves, Miss Marie Lindsey, Miss Inez Wade, Miss Esther Wahlfarth, Miss Louise Curry, Miss Fannie Au, Miss Claudine Puffer, Miss Lillie King, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maher, Mr. W. A. Maher and Misses Jessie and Grace Maher.

The engagement is announced of Miss Anita Remking of Madison, Wis., and Mr. C. Frank Sammet of Boston, who resides in this city.

Moonlight Wedding.

One of the prettiest weddings at Austin, Tex., recently was that of Miss Cornelia Keesbey and Mr. David Alidice, which took place in the brilliant moonlight on the terrace of the home of the bride on the evening of Wednesday, October 4. Mr. and Mrs. Alidice will make their home at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Alidice spent the greater part of last winter at Washington as the guest of the Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory and was constantly entertained during her visit here.

Entertain War College Head.

Gen. Montgomery M. Macomb was the honor guest at a dinner given last Wednesday evening at the Army and Navy Club by the War College division of the general staff and faculty. Brig. Gen. Treat presided at the dinner, which was given as a farewell to Gen. Macomb, who has been the president of the Army War College, and was retired Thursday.

Halloween Dance.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, W. D. C., will give a halloween dance Tuesday evening, October 24, at Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue. The decorations will all be suggestive of the autumn season, and halloween favors will adorn each guest. Mrs. George Covington, Mrs. Bates and Mrs.
