

LONDON ACCLAIMS WILSON'S VICTORY
Papers Predict It Will Make Him Big Figure in World History.

GERMANS NOT SO CORDIAL

By the Associated Press. LONDON, November 11.—In an editorial on the result of the presidential election in the United States the Daily News regards President Wilson's election as a triumph both for his personality and his policies. The newspaper adds: "In this country it is inevitable that predominant stress should be laid on President Wilson's attitude toward the European war, and it will be learned with general relief that the United States will be guided in the four critical months ahead not by a defeated but by a re-commissioned President. We have never disguised our conviction that Mr. Wilson is qualified, as is no other American statesman, to guide the destinies of his country at this time and particularly in the field of domestic policy, and we desire as little as possible to disguise our satisfaction that the reins of power are to remain in his capable hands."

The Daily Telegraph says: "It is clear that whatever his difficulties with domestic affairs may be, a man of President Wilson's character has now the opportunity of giving new weight to the influence of the greatest neutral nation—the most powerful trustee of the interests of humanity in connection with the world war. If he can be sure of a majority in Congress he can be sure of a vigorous line of policy with regard to those questions of American rights which have most profoundly stirred the minds of his countrymen, and we do not doubt that the second Wilson administration will approach that part of the task with purpose re-emphasized and firmness reinforced."

"New Epoch in American Politics."

The Manchester Guardian attributes President Wilson's success to the rallying of a sufficient number of the progressive votes which Roosevelt gained in 1912. "It seems a small thing," this newspaper continues, "but yet it may indicate a new epoch in American political life. The progressive movement arose entirely independently of foreign politics. Many progressive votes which Wilson are given with the mental reservation that they will not go again to a democratic candidate unless Wilson confirms the faith of the progressives by consolidating what is still only tentative. If he does that he will have established himself as the ablest statesman since Lincoln, and he may be destined to play a part in the achievement of peace which will give him a place in world history."

Berlin Not So Cordial.

By Wireless to the Associated Press. BERLIN, November 11.—The German newspapers received the news of President Wilson's re-election with skepticism, and generally wait for the final announcement before again venturing extensive comment, but appear to feel little need for revising the opinions based on the first reports, since at that time they took the standpoint that it made little difference to Germany whether Mr. Hughes or President Wilson was successful. The Tagblatt points out that Wilson's election, if confirmed, indicates a continuation of present policies, with the possible dropping of such cases as were introduced for campaign reasons. President Wilson, it adds, probably will now devote himself with increased vigor to the idea of an international peace organization, which, as the debate in the reichstag main committee showed, will be received sympathetically in Germany. Another favorable aspect of the latest news, the Tagblatt concludes, is that the re-election of Wilson will prevent a return by the United States to a high tariff system and will be helpful to future German-American commercial relations.

PRESIDENT WILSON TAUGHT GOOD LESSON, IT IS CLAIMED

German Papers See Reasons for Contentment in Election Results in United States. BERLIN, November 11.—Although further press discussions of President Wilson's re-election emphasize Germany's indifference as to the outcome, important organs like the Cologne Gazette note with satisfaction that the President's success, as they view it, has been due to the pacific temper of the American people. The Cologne Volkszeitung comments in a similar strain and expresses the belief that the neutrality of the United States now will be better secured than before election.

NEW MEXICAN DEMOCRATS CLAIM STATE TICKET, TOO

SANTA FE, N. M., November 11.—In a public statement today democratic state headquarters claims the election of E. C. De Baca, governor, over H. O. Bursum by a majority of 1,000 to 750, and the election of W. B. Watson to Congress by a majority near 1,000. The republicans have not conceded either, but have made no claims of a Bursum majority today. The official count, which will decide close contests, will be reported in about a week.

MISSOURI DEMOCRAT LEADS FOR GOVERNOR

ST. LOUIS, Mo., November 11.—With all but twelve precincts in the state reported, the plurality of Frederick Gardner, democrat, for governor, stood at 1,711 tonight. The vote was Gardner, 278,840; Lamm, republican, 276,849.

Gen. Eben Swift, recently promoted, in charge of the Army Service School at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., who has been in this city for several days as a member of a board selecting officers for detail to the General Staff Corps, has been assigned to temporary duty in command of the 2d Cavalry Brigade, with headquarters at Columbus, N. M.

BOTH WILSON AND HUGHES BREAK POPULAR VOTE RECORD
2,901,000 More Ballots Cast for Combined Democratic and G. O. P. Tickets Than for Three Candidates in 1912.

The tremendous interest throughout the country in the election Tuesday is indicated by the fact that, with all the figures at present available, about 2,901,000 more votes were cast for the combined democratic and republican tickets than were cast for the combined democratic, republican and progressive tickets in 1912.

The issues involved, the increase in population of voting age, and the large number of women who voted for the first time for President, played their parts in the huge vote cast. President Wilson's majority in the popular vote over Mr. Hughes was approximately 400,070.

The gain of the republican party in the popular vote for President as compared with the vote in 1912 for Taft was 4,714,094, and the democratic gain as compared with the vote for President Wilson in 1912 was 2,498,192. The total progressive vote cast for Roosevelt in 1912 was 4,119,507. With the figures at hand, therefore, it is difficult to estimate just what proportion of the progressive vote of 1912 went to Wilson and what proportion went to Hughes.

THE POPULAR VOTE.

The Popular Vote for Republican and Democratic Tickets in 1916 and the Popular Vote for the Progressive Ticket in 1912.

The table was compiled from the figures so far available from the election of Tuesday and from estimates of the vote in the districts still not reported.
