HOSTESS AT HALLOWEEN DINNER.

MRS. THOMAS F. LOGAN. Mr. and Mrs. Logan were among those entertaining at the Chevy Chase Club last night.

Marriage of Representative and Mrs. Dunn's Daughter at Rochester Home Yesterday.

Engagement Announced of Miss Julia Wood—Wedding to Follow Shortly.

The marriage of Miss Frances Lillian Dunn, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Thomas B. Dunn, and Mr. George Hamlet Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Rochester, took place at the home of Representative and Mrs. Dunn, 705 East Avenue, Rochester, N. Y., yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, passed through an aisle formed of white ribbons to the chancel. She wore a gown of white ivory satin veiled with French tulle and trimmed with rosebuds and orange blossoms.

Mrs. Joseph Oster of New York, who was matron of honor, wore a charming gown of pale blue and silver brocade veiled with blue tissue weighted with blue crystal tassels and trimmed with bands of kolinsky fur. She carried pink lilies.

The Rev. C. Waldo Cherry of the Central Presbyterian Church, Rochester, officiated. Mrs. Dunn, mother of the bride, wore a stunning gown of sapphire blue velvet with a pointed train combined with gold net and lace sleeves.

Mrs. Edward Parker Wood announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Julia Montgomery Wood, to Mr. Andrew Jones of New York.

Mrs. Houston, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, and Mrs. Carl Vrooman, wife of the assistant secretary of agriculture, went to the greenhouses of the Department of Agriculture yesterday for a private view of the wonderful display of chrysanthemums now in full bloom.

The Secretary of the Treasury, who with Mrs. McAdoo, arrived at White Sulphur Springs Tuesday, motoring there from Washington, celebrated his birthday yesterday.

Gen. Alvaro Obregon, the Mexican warrior and statesman, who was the guest of the ambassador of Mexico and Senora de Borjas at the embassy yesterday, concluded his visit in the city yesterday and left Washington.

Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by Gen. and Mrs. W. M. Black and a party of friends, went to the American University Camp last night to witness the interesting show given in the Y. M. C. A. building by members of the Camouflage Corps.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels made an address this morning before the Young Women's Christian Association at Columbia, S. C., touching upon the war work which has been undertaken by that organization.

Mr. Arthur Bradley Campbell will be chairman of the floor committee at the ball to be given at Rauscher's Saturday night for the benefit of the Washington ward of the American Hospital at Newby and the worsted fund of the District Chapter of the Red Cross.

ary at the American embassy for the past three years.

Mrs. Albert G. Winterhalter, wife of Admiral Winterhalter, U. S. N., entertained at a small informal luncheon today at the Army and Navy Club in compliment to Mrs. George Rook, U. S. N., is the house guest of Mrs. E. H. Tillman, wife of Commander Tillman, U. S. N.

Mrs. Jordan Herbert Stabler, who has been absent from Washington for several months, will return on Saturday, joining Mr. Stabler at their residence in Jefferson place.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard are moving from their house, in 16th street, which they have leased for the winter, to 1750 Massachusetts avenue, a house which has had a long list of interesting tenants and which has been both a legation and a cabinet home.

The Marquise Clara Lanza has rented her apartment for the winter to Mr. Frederick Oederlin of the Swiss legation. She will leave shortly for San Antonio to visit her son, Col. Conrad Lanza, who is in command of the 19th Field Artillery, at Fort Sam Houston.

Later she will go to Butte, Mont., where another son, Dr. Anthony Lanza of the public health service, is stationed. Capt. Manfred Lanza, who came near dying of pneumonia last spring and has been on sick leave at Los Angeles all summer, is at present at Washington, on his way to Camp Dix, New Jersey, where he has recently been ordered.

Mrs. Robert L. Taylor has taken an apartment at the Bradford, 1800 K street, where she is now settled for the winter.

A naval wedding of unusual interest, the bridegroom being a son of Rear Admiral Badger, U. S. N., and Mrs. Badger, took place last evening at the Hotel Majestic, New York. Lieut. Oscar Charles Badger, U. S. N., was married to Miss Isabelle Edna Austen. Autumn foliage and white chrysanthemums mingled with palms decorated the ballroom, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Barry of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament. It was followed by a reception with dancing.

The brides, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Austen, entered the ballroom with her father. Her gown of white satin had a long court train of cloth of silver, trimmed with orange blossoms, and her tulle veil, which fell over it, was held by a coronet of pearls. Her shower bouquet was of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Gladys Austen, the bride's sister, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in blue chiffon, made over flesh-colored satin and trimmed with a girdle of silver. The bridesmaids, Miss Olga Humphreys, Miss Beatrice Scott and Miss Beatrice Nickel, wore costumes of chiffon in orchid shades over pink satin and made with bustle effect. Their gowns were of blue and silver and they carried lavender chrysanthemums. Two little flower girls were also in the bridal party.

Betty Bryan, daughter of Capt. Henry S. Bryan, U. S. N., of the War College at Newport, and Lydia Austen, daughter of Lieut. Charles Austen, United States Coast Artillery. Their frocks were of pink net and they carried baskets of pink chrysanthemums.

Lieut. Badger had Lieut. Samuel A. Clements, U. S. N., for his best man. Lieut. David Borden, E. B. Nixon, R. R. Holcombe and Elmer L. Woodruff served as ushers.

At a reception and dinner, which followed the wedding ceremonies, the engagement of the bride's sister, Miss Gladys Austen, to Lieut. Donald Greenwood, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was announced. Lieut. Greenwood is stationed at Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook.

The Japanese financial mission, which left Japan on October 14, is now due at San Francisco, and on its arrival there it will immediately come to Washington.

Mrs. William Littauer of Washington and New York arrived at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs on Tuesday to remain until late in November.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Walker in Keyson street was the scene of a beautiful wedding this morning at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Cornelia Gertrude Walker, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Stanley Robinson of Richmond. Rev. W. B. Burnett performed the ceremony in the drawing room, which was elaborately decorated with sunburst roses against a background of palms, ferns and amilax.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a modish traveling suit of taupe chiffon broadcloth with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Kathryn Graves of Richmond was maid of honor, and her gown was of yellow satin and georgette crepe embroidered in pearls. She carried a bouquet of sunburst roses.

The little flower girls, Miss Evelyn Bigley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bigley, and Miss Virginia Hendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hendrick, were bridesmaids.
