

Boy Scouts Harvest Corn Crop in Potomac Park

How's this for a "yield" of corn?

Cutting the corn is an exciting and interesting job.

To select the best out of the pile is not easy, for all of them are good.

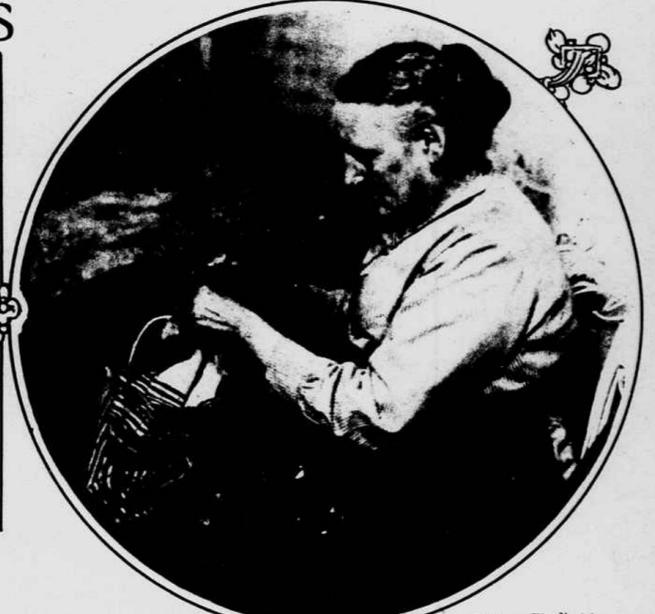

Four happy "farmers" with their arms full of golden corn. (Photo by Staff Photographer.)

Ambulance Corps of the District Red Cross

Left to right—Mrs. Walch, Mrs. David Fairchild, Miss Fahnestock, Miss Devereux, Miss Harley, Miss Sisson, Mrs. Floyd P. Waggaman (major), Mrs. Blumenberg, Miss Shepard, Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Whitridge, Mrs. Littlefield, Mrs. Folsom, Mrs. Fitzgibbons, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Moque, Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Wheeler, Miss Whitmarsh, Miss Clarke, Mrs. Keen, Mrs. Donner, Mrs. Mix, Miss Heiberger, Miss Mary Brown, Mrs. Chiswell.

(Photo by Staff Photographer.)

(Photo by Cinedinst.)

Miss Hattie Maddox, blind worker in the government mail bag repair shop, who puts drawstrings and fasteners in the mail sacks. She has been employed fixing cords in mail sacks for twenty-nine years.

Captains, left to right—Mrs. Blumenberg, Miss Margaret Fahnestock, Miss Alice Shepard, Miss M. Hartley, Mrs. Floyd P. Waggaman (major). (Photo by Staff Photographer.)

No lack of music in the training camps. Every company in the National Army can boast of having music in some form to while away the hours, or, rather, the minutes of leisure. One company at Camp Jackson, in the south, is the proud possessor of a guitar quartet. (Photo by Central News Photo Service.)