Dr. Louis Stern and Rev. Dr. Abraham Simon of the Eighth Street Temple, took place in the drawing room before an improvised altar banked in palms and pink sweet peas. The same flowers were distributed throughout the rooms. A large family party and a few intimate friends were present, and a wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. The table had for a centerpiece pink sweet peas and pink snapdragons. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, entered to the strains of "Lochgrin" and danced the ceremony of the orchestra played the "Swan Song." Her wedding gown was of pale gray tulle silk, with a buff colored vest and a white picture hat of gray and white georgette crepe, lined in pink, and a wreath of tiny pink roses. She carried a white Bible and a show-er bouquet of orchids and white lilies. Little Miss Deborah Mae Liebman, sister of the bride, was flower girl and preceded her to the altar, looking daintily in white net over pink satin, and carried a basket of pink rose petals, which she strewed along the path. Mrs. A. Liebman wore a gown of black satin and jet and wore a corsage bouquet of violets.

A War-Time Necessity

War needs call for the conservation of every one's time, money, possessions and health.

- 1. TIME. The Hoover makes housecleaning 80% easier. Women who do their own "picking up" can quickly and thoroughly clean. The time saved can be used to help win the war.
- 2. MONEY. The Hoover saves housecleaning and carpet-cleaning bills. If you hire help, the help can do more in a day's time. The Hoover also doubles the life of rugs, carpets, curtains, draperies, wall coverings, etc. because it thoroughly and dustlessly cleans. That saves money.
- 3. POSSESSIONS. The Hoover prolongs the life of your household furniture and interior decorations as above stated.
- 4. HEALTH. Disease germs thrive in dust. Brooms stir up the dirt only to have it light somewhere else. Carpet sweepers are tiresome. The Hoover dustlessly bids the house of dirt and germs without tiring the user.

We will gladly arrange for a demonstration in your home free of expense or obligation.
