

M. Brooks & Co.

The Women's Store 1107-1109 G St.

Every True American Will Buy a Liberty Bond

A Remarkable Suit Sale

We have been persistently spending every possible effort for weeks past to secure suits of maximum quality and individuality to sell at a minimum cost. This special sale is the result.

Exclusive Fall and Winter SUITS $35 & $50

Models of the highest type, including Tailored, Dressy and Semi-Dress effects. All favored fabrics in black, navy, congo, teal, damson, reindeer, rose, taupe, Havana brown, Russian green and burgundy.

THE MATERIALS:

- Silvertones Duvet de Laines
- Tricotines
- Wool Velours Broadcloths
- Poirot Twills
- Velour de Laines

Two Particularly Impressive Groups of Fashionable

NEW COATS $35 and $55

Unusual Values

Models that show the best of the new style ideas for fall and winter, of wool velour, broadcloth, kersey, pom-pom and plush; collars of fur, fur fabrics and rich plush.

Decidedly smart new coats, in fine all-wool fabrics—Bolivia, wool velour, silvertone, broadcloth and velvet; collars of skunk, Hudson seal, Australian opossum and self materials.

Society

(Continued from Second Page.)

on duty in this city, has visiting him his mother, Mrs. Annie Snyder, who arrived last week from Georgia for a visit to her son before his departure for overseas duty.

Capt. E. M. Pratt has gone to his new station at Del Rio, Tex., where he will shortly be joined by his mother, Mrs. M. A. Pratt.

Capt. Morgan Watkins, U. S. A., and Mrs. Watkins went last week to Camp Travis, San Antonio, Tex., to which place the former has been detailed to duty.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

Col. E. De Land Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Miss Harriet Smith, has gone to Fort Sill, where he has been detailed to command the 9th Field Artillery.

Maj. Clarke, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Camp Travis, Tex., where he spent a week as the guest of Col. Rand, U. S. A.

Mrs. Wallace M. McKay, wife of Lieut. McKay, U. S. A., with their little son, is making her home in San Diego, Cal., during her husband's absence in France.

Col. Robert Ames, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ames have gone to New York for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hunter, wife of Chaplain Hunter, U. S. A., has gone to San Diego, Cal., where she will remain during her husband's absence in France.

PRINCE GEORGES COUNTY

Special Correspondence of The Star.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., October 5.—According to reports, there are many cases of influenza, Spanish or otherwise, in nearly every section of the county. Schools were closed this week.

The fourth liberty loan campaign is under way with vigor in this county. Friday evening, under the auspices of the Eaden High School Auxiliary, an oyster supper and loan rally was held at Eaden Hall, Upper Marlboro.

Representative Sydney E. Mudd, just returned from France, will address a rally to be held Wednesday evening, in Gilman Hall, Upper Marlboro. There will be musical selections by pupils of the Upper Marlboro High School, a soldier band will play and a soldier, who has seen overseas service, will tell his experiences.

Rev. S. Hildebrand, pastor of the Hyattsville Methodist Episcopal Church South, officiated at the marriage, Thursday, of Miss Alice Pearl of Rockville, Md., and Alexander Burroughs of Washington.

The Young Men's Club of Prince Georges County has been organized with the following officers: Herbert V. Gardner, president; Newman S. Egan, secretary and managing director; Clarence J. Owens, jr., treasurer; Stanley W. Crosthwaite, secretary; Rev. A. K. Stocking, chaplain. The board of governors consists of Herbert V. Gardner, Glendale; B. E. Johnson, Hyattsville; Clarence J. Owens, jr., Riverdale; Stanley W. Crosthwaite, Hyattsville, and S. Earl Smith, Bethesda.

Principal objects of the club are to further mutual understanding among young men of the county, the promotion of a more active and intelligent civil life and the advancement of all means making for a better county. Membership is open to any white male persons between eighteen and thirty, who live in the county. At a meeting of the club at the residence of Dr. Clarence J. Owens, managing director of the Southern Commercial Congress, at Riverdale, Thursday evening, a number of important committees were appointed and other business transacted.

Philip P. Watkins of this county has entered suit in the circuit court for divorce from Estelle Watkins, charging desertion.

At the October meeting of the Riverdale Chamber of Commerce, speakers were M. P. Halloran and Dr. Robert B. Johnson. Col. H. Maxon Williams, fuel administrator, Miss Jessie LeLancé recited the poem, "The Pool's Memory" and Col. H. Maxon Williams read the fourteen articles promulgated by President Wilson as a basis for peace discussions.

Mrs. Margaret Ellington of Mount Rainier has entered suit in the circuit court for absolute divorce from Richmond C. Ellington, alleging desertion. The complainant asks for the custody of the two children and for alimony.

The Hyattsville Bowling League opened its 1918-19 schedule Monday evening when the Hilton five and the Berwyn combination hooked up, the former emerging victorious by 1,397 pins to 1,284. That night the winners of the league, made a brief address. Tuesday evening the Easterners captured two of the three games of the Royals, Wednesday evening Chillum last year's champions, started off in off form by humbling the Old Boys all three games.

Capt. Francis F. Painter, formerly commander of old Company F local militia, and now attached to an anti-aircraft outfit has arrived safely overseas, according to word received by his parents, Town Inspector and Mrs. John Painter.

F. J. Thomsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Thomsen, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army and assigned to Tulane University, New Orleans, La., as an instructor. Lieut. Thomsen, who last year was graduated from the Maryland State College of Agriculture, received his commission upon completing a course of training at the officers' camp at Fort Sheridan, Ill. He was taking a post-graduate course at the University of Wisconsin when he entered the officers' camp.

The report of Town Treasurer William A. Shepherd, submitted at the October meeting of the mayor and city council, showed the municipality's finances to be in this shape: Receipts, $1,786.25; expenditures, $1,422.42; cash on hand and in bank, $303.96; cash in the various funds—general, $373.96; sewerage, $156.80; special water, $615.30; road, $98.61; road rebate, $1,337.80; fire department, $75.32, and special road fund, $45.75.

D. C. MEN COMMISSIONED.

Commissions in the Army have been issued to the following:

John F. Maury, 1721 U street, captain, general staff.

Harrison E. Patten, Silver Spring, Md.; captain, Quartermaster Corps.

John L. Graves, Camp Meigs, D. C.; Frederick G. Nail, Winchester, Va.; and William H. Tyree, Lynchburg, Va.; second lieutenants, Quartermaster Corps.

Guy M. Rush, Washington Hotel, captain, Motor Transport Corps.

John A. Staub, Camp Holabird, Md.; first lieutenant, Motor Transport Corps.

Archibald M. Erskine, 2523 14th street; Michael W. Flynn, 3033 16th street; and Melvin H. Schlosberg, 1312 Euclid street, second lieutenants, Chemical Warfare Service.

William Todd, 1901 19th street, captain, Sanitary Corps.

Morris P. Schaffer, 1760 Euclid street; first lieutenant, Sanitary Corps.

Thomas A. Williams, Middletown, Va.; first lieutenant, Medical Corps.

William T. Abrams, 1708 24 street; William M. Canby, Rockville, Md.; and Marion D. De Tar, the Leland, second lieutenants, Tank Corps.

Thomas E. Rowe, 1459 Girard street, first lieutenant, air service.

Carl K. Kattenmann, 617 H street, and Maurice E. Rowe, jr., second lieutenants, air service.

Charles C. Roebbling Dead.

TRENTON, N. J., October 5.—Charles C. Roebbling, president of the John A. Roebbling's Sons Company, wire and cable manufacturer, died at his home here today after an illness of several months. He was sixty-nine years old.

PAUL LEIBEL Furrier and Ladies' Tailor 1215 G St.

HAVE US MAKE YOUR NAVAL RESERVE SUIT

NOW, madame. Members must have them by Oct. 10. We can fit you within 24 hours. Ready-to-wear Suits in stock.

A. & N. Nurses' Uniforms

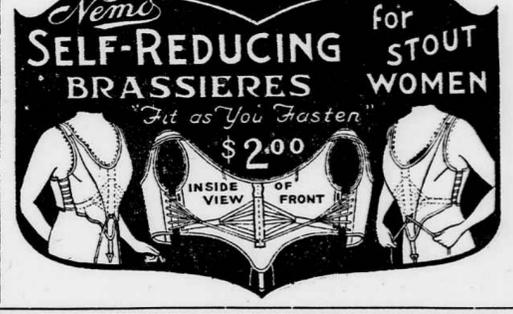

—to order and ready to wear at REASONABLE PRICES.

Millinery

More New Styles YES, most every day brings more new Hats to lend additional charm to our admirable display of Autumn Millinery!

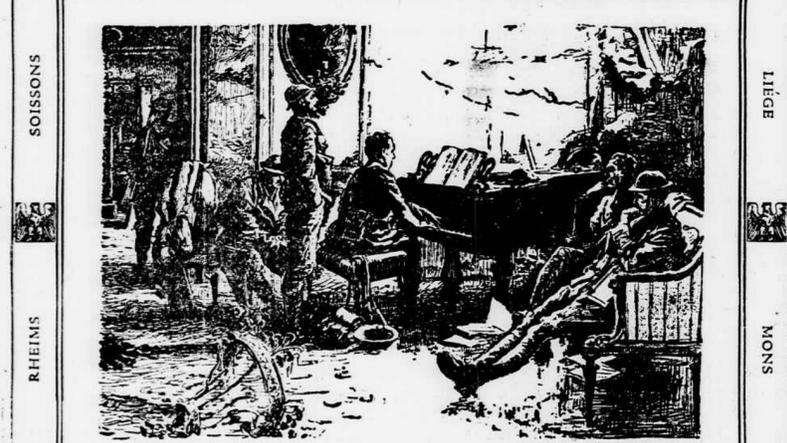

Stiebel's

ESTABLISHED 1885. 607 Thirteenth St. (Between F and G Sts.)

Back the Boys Over There--Buy a Bond Over Here!

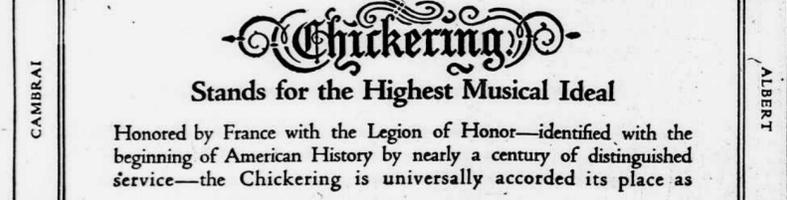

THE SOMME VERDUN THE MARNE

IN AN OLD CHATEAU

SOMEWHERE in France, in the shell-scarred wreck of a once beautiful chateau, sits a group of soldiers, war worn and weary from days in the trenches. As one sings a song of home to the accompaniment of the grand piano, the rest sit and forget the bitterness of battle and their tired bodies. Over the seas on the tide of music, they are carried in memory back to their homes. To those for whom they fight.

This is the mission of music, in France, in America, through all the world: To delight the mind and bring soul-reviving rest from the cares of the day. To you, in America, as to those men in France, the

Chickering

Stands for the Highest Musical Ideal

Honored by France with the Legion of Honor—identified with the beginning of American History by nearly a century of distinguished service—the Chickering is universally accorded its place as

AMERICA'S GREAT PIANO

UPRIGHTS AMPICO GRANDS Reproducing Piano Home of the Chickering Piano

Arthur JORDAN Piano Co.

Thirteenth and G Streets

Victrolas Sonoras Grafonolas

CHATEAU-THIERRY LOUVAIN ARMENTIERES

Navy and Marine Corps Notes.

Mrs. Rush S. Fay, wife of Lieut. Commander Fay, U. S. N., has returned to Washington for the winter and is located at Ulster Inn, 1627 19th street, where she will make her home for the season, while engaged in war work.

Miss Susanne Chase, daughter of the late Capt. Volney O. Chase, U. S. N., has returned to Washington and will spend the winter in work for the food commission.

Miss Katherine Du Bose, daughter of Medical Director William R. Du Bose, U. S. N., and Mrs. Du Bose, has entered upon war work this season with the French high commission.

Mrs. J. C. Townsend, wife of Commander Townsend, U. S. N., accompanied by their daughter, has gone to Annapolis, where they will remain until the winter at Carvel Hall.

Mrs. Bradford, widow of Rear Admiral Bradford, U. S. N., after spending the summer in France, has returned to Washington and reopened for the winter her home, 1522 P street.

Miss Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

ALEXANDRIA SOCIETY

Miss Clarence Snowden, Miss Elsie Snowden and Miss Bessie Griffith are spending several weeks at Atlantic City.

Lieut. Ernest M. Demaine, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., who has been at Camp A. A. Humphreys, left Wednesday for Fort Douglas, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Keller and Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Groves have returned from Charlottesville, where they went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Keller's sister, Daisy L. Purvis, to Lieut. Edgar Snowden, Medical Corps, U. S. A., of this city, has been assigned to duty at the base hospital, Camp Lee, Va.

Rev. Berryman Green, D. D., dean of the Episcopal Theological Seminary has returned to his home at Seminary Hill, after a visit to friends at Richmond.

Lieut. James Clinton Smoot, jr., U. S. A., has been assigned as student instructor at Bowdoin College, Me. Lieut. Smoot has recently finished his course at Plattsburg.

Mrs. J. J. Sullivan and Master John Wood are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive Davis are spending the week at Richmond, where they have attended the school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis have returned from spending two weeks with friends at Lorton, Va.

Lieut. George W. Brent, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., was the guest in the city of the late Judge Samuel G. Brent, in North Columbus street.

Miss Florence Larkin of Camden, N. J., and William Carson of Camp A. A. Humphreys, were married Tuesday at the parsonage of the Southern Methodist Church by Rev. E. V. Register.

Mrs. Helen Davis and Miss Olive