BELIEVES RUSSIA FOR BOLSHIEVISM

(Continued from First Page.) for combating its spread. The witness said that a year ago Nikolai Lenin, bolshevik premier, had only recently foreseen how bolshevik ideas would take root in Bulgaria, Austria and Germany in the order named. America, Mr. Robins said, alone is able to combat bolshevism. Mr. Robins quoted Lenin as declaring that in his opinion the American government was entirely corrupt and as adding: "We challenge every government, which is not overthrown, but at the same time we will destroy all moribund political governments." Increasing opposition to the principles of bolshevism, both in Russia and in the United States, was advocated by Mr. Robins, but he warned against the use of military force and the arbitrary suppression of ideas. The witness said the United States should send an American mission to Russia to aid the people in obtaining the necessities of life, declaring this would be the most effective way of fighting bolshevism.

Publicity Best Weapon.

To combat bolshevism in this country, Mr. Robins urged that the people be allowed to know the truth about its "false teaching, and that existing evils in American economic and social life be remedied by law. The publicity, he added, would prompt the repudiation of bolshevism. IRISH DELEGATE WARNS OF FIGHT

Can Stop Ratification of League in Congress, Says O'Ceallaigh. GAUNTLET TO PRESIDENT. PARIS, March 7.—If the Irish question is not settled by the peace conference, friends of Ireland will stop ratification of the league of nations in the American Congress, Sean O'Ceallaigh (John O'Kelly), the delegate of the provisional Irish republic to the peace conference, declared in a statement today. He expressed doubt that any league of nations could be formed, and said that the Irish "have spoken gently" to President Wilson long enough. "Irish Will Fight." "We can stop ratification of this league of nations in Congress if the Irish question is not settled," the Irish delegate declared. "It is my opinion that there will be no league of nations; at any rate, there will be peace in Europe because Ireland will fight and the world knows that Ireland can fight. "We believe we are powerful enough in America to make President Wilson enforce the principles outlined in his peace plan concerning the rights of nations to dispose of themselves. We have pleaded and spoken gently to him long enough. The time has come for action."

No Reply From Delegates.

O'Ceallaigh added that no reply had been received from the members of the American peace delegation asking that Ireland's case be heard, except a simple acknowledgment from Gen. Bliss. He added: "The others failed to grant me the courtesy usually bestowed by gentlemen when receiving a letter, even from beggars, and God knows we are not beggars." O'Ceallaigh, who is a small man of energetic appearance, spoke without emotion and without bitterness concerning the amnesty granted to Sinn Feiners in England, saying men have been in jail for nine and one-half months without a charge being made against them. England was the last of the belligerent countries to grant amnesty to political prisoners. It is not a record to be proud of.

Assigned to Camp Meade.

Gen. Buck Will Succeed Gen. Schindel in Command. Maj. Gen. Beaumont B. Buck has been relieved from command of Camp MacArthur, Waco, Tex., and assigned to the command of Camp Meade, Md., to take effect March 15. He will relieve Brig. Gen. S. Bayard Schindel, who is to be honorably discharged as a brigadier general and resume his regular status as a lieutenant colonel of infantry.

Reasons Assigned.

"First, because to assume the floor leadership would necessitate my resignation from the committee on ways and means, of which I now rank next to the chairman. If I should retire from this committee, Pennsylvania would be without representation there. Second, because it may help to relieve the leadership situation in both houses, as it relates to Pennsylvania. Third, because the unity of republicanism is essential to our success in dealing with the great problems that confront the next Congress. And unity can best be secured by a reasonable reserve of personal ambition."
