Mr. Peck said this view is supported by him directing the affairs of the National Food Administration. A misunderstanding regarding what Chairman Hoover said in reference to possible $3.50 wheat, Mr. Peck said, had caused many to believe that food prices would soar to great heights.

Mr. Hoover's Statement Qualified. Mr. Peck declared that Mr. Hoover's statement in reference to $3.50 wheat was qualified by the explanation that it may go to that price if there is a free market and uncontrolled prices.

When nature wakes her children gay, and dresses them anew In all their frocks and calico in every style and hue. And turns them loose, it seems to me they miss a lot who hold beneath the kindly sun, To wander out of doors once more and know a wanderer's fun.

There's something to this life, I say, far more than wealth or fame; There is a splendid happiness which every man may claim. And when the green is on the trees and all the brooks are clear, There comes a balm for every ache, a smile for every tear.

O'LEARY JURORS DISAGREE.

Discharged by Court in Trial of Espionage Case at New York. NEW YORK, March 24.—After deliberating fifty-four hours and failing to reach a verdict, the jury which heard the case of Jeremiah A. O'Leary, charged with violation of the espionage law, was discharged by Federal Judge Rand at 5:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Of the eight counts in the indictment, three had been eliminated by the court. The jury reported that it had acquitted O'Leary, former editor of the anti-British magazine "Ezra," of four of the remaining counts, but had been unable to agree on the last. Adolph Stern, business manager of the magazine and the third co-defendant, was acquitted on all counts. The count on which the jurors disagreed was an overt act alleged to have been committed in the October, 1917, issue of the magazine. Although the jury refused to discuss their vote on the seventh count, it was reported about the courtroom that the vote had been seven to five in favor of acquittal on this count also.

The mummy of an Egyptian princess, which had been interred for 2,000 years before the Christian era, was recently found incased in a lacid article very similar to the pair of corsets worn by the woman of today.

SAYS SOLDIERS SHOULD PRESENT OWN CLAIMS

War Department Asserts Pay Accounts Are Delayed by Employment of Attorneys.

Adjustment of soldiers' claims for pay is delayed by the employment of attorneys or agents, according to a War Department bulletin.

"The claim of the soldier is all that is required," said the statement, "and such claims should be submitted directly by the discharged officer or soldier to the War Department director of finance, who will give them as prompt and careful consideration as possible. Any fee paid by the soldier to an attorney or claim agent is a needless expense."

Where Claims for Bonus Should Go. Claims of the $50 additional bonus authorized in the war revenue act, the department said, should be sent to the zone finance officer in this city, and the application should be accompanied by a certified copy of the discharge certificate to be made by the nearest recruiting officer, a statement of all military service since the declaration of war against Germany and the address to which the check should be sent.

Accounts for Arrears of Pay. Claims for arrears of pay due officers and enlisted men at the time of their death in the service should be addressed to the zone finance officer.
