Milk Is Both Food and Drink

Children MUST Have It--- Adults Should Have It

The National Food Administration says:

"A quart a day for every child, if possible; a pint without fail. Plenty of milk will help give all your children, big and little, a chance for health they ought to have. Buy more milk and less meat and your family will be better fed."

MASONIC TEAMS READY FOR GAME

Shrine-Grotto and Blue Lodge Nines Clash Tomorrow in Annual Charity Benefit.

G. MANSON FOOTE, Chairman Masonic base ball committee.

BY H. C. BYRD.

Masonic base ball teams are scheduled to clash tomorrow in their annual game for the benefit of the Eastern Star Home. The contest will be played at American League Park and begin at 3 o'clock. The game is to be preceded by a parade, which will start at the Masonic Temple at 2 o'clock and proceed to the ball park.

Players of both teams are lined up for the battle. Without doubt, the money due to faces will be the best equipped with playing talent that have faced since the Masonic contests began in 1914. About 75 per cent of base ball is in the pitching, and with Frye and Buscher opposing each other on the slab a real pitchers' battle should result. Frye is to do the hurrying for the Shrine-Grotto nine and Buscher will throw them over for the Blue Lodge.

G. Manson Foote, master of Harmony Lodge and chairman of the base ball committee of the Mothers' Association, believes that a record crowd will attend. It is his opinion that more tickets have been sold than for any of the games of former years and that the crowds of the last two games will be far exceeded. About 10,000 persons attended a year ago. Maj. Robert H. Young, father of the base ball scene, also voiced the idea yesterday that indications for a great attendance are the best since the game was originated.

L. Whiting Estes and Charley Shackelford, heads of the Shrine and Grotto, are not giving out opinions about anything except the depth of the grave they are digging for the Blue Lodge team. The former is inclined to spade out a hole so deep that the Blue Lodge players would be unable to crawl into in about the same length of time that it took the frog which got up one foot and fell back two every time it tried; the latter is more merciful, as he only wants to bury them just deep enough that they will be able to get out by next June—in time to be buried again.

Just what stunts the Shrine and Grotto are devising are about as mysterious as what will happen to the league of nations when the Senate gets hold of the peace treaty, but if the Shrine-Grotto team wins it probably would not be a bad idea for the Blue Lodge aggregation to hit it as crow flies for the back fence.

But seriously, the by-play of the Shrine and Grotto, the two playgrounds of Masonry, forms one of the most interesting features of the game. For the last three years these organizations have been opposed to each other, and now that they have combined should give a "show" well worth seeing.

The game is going to be interesting in actual play and in its side lights. In fact, no contest of the sort offers so much of all-round attractiveness to either the directly interested or the casual spectator.

Ordnance defeated Treasury in the Departmental League yesterday by 12 to 11, scoring four runs in the last inning in order to attain the victory. Dyer pitched well for the winners and also got three hits. Griffith, second baseman for Treasury, made four hits out of six times at bat.

Following is a letter relative to a statement made in this column Monday that the Washington Canoe Club four, which raced at Philadelphia last Saturday, had never been defeated:

"I have just read with much interest your article in regard to the success of the Washington Canoe Club four at Philadelphia, wherein you state they have not lost a real match race. There is no doubt that the Washington Canoe Club has a fine four, but certainly I have not forgotten that the Riverside Canoe Club defeated the W. C. C. bunch in 1912, once on the basin and once on the Potomac. The Riverside four was made up of Callegan, Krauskoff, Purdy and Boothby. The races were exciting and close, and Riverside proved the dark horse in the events."

The statement in the above paragraph is true, but does not affect the assertion that the present Washington Canoe Club four has never been whipped. The four is made up of Burch, Rutherford, Knight and Wagner, and since these men began paddling together, in 1914, no four has been able to lower their colors anywhere near as good as the W. C. C.'s present quartet, then the Riverside club had a real boat.

TEN COMPLETE COURSE IN AMERICANIZATION

Commencement exercises were held at the Webster School yesterday for the advanced Americanization class of the public schools. Certificates were given to ten of the thirty-eight students of the class to show that they have completed the course. The class is directed by Miss M. Benson. Mrs. Rebecca Shanley, principal of foreign night classes, delivered an address. Patriotic compositions were read as follows: "Why I Came to America," by Spiros Veris; "The Victory Loan," Alexander Storis; "Our Trip to Mount Vernon," by Athanasios Lamprinos, and "Opportunities of America," by Isaac Shuster. Those who received diplomas were: Mrs. G. Davis, Alexander Storis, Athanasios Lamprinos, Aristides Lamprinos, Spiros Veris, Thomas Dallas, Peter Dracopoulos, James Di Angelis, Isaac Shuster and Battista Marconi.

Soldier Prepared in a Week. One disabled soldier took a training course of a week's duration, the shortest offered yet by the federal board for vocational education. He had entered the Army just before completing a course in auto mechanics. The board approved a course consisting of five lectures. It isn't the length of time which counts, it is declared, but the chance the disabled man needs. Disabled men can find help at the board offices at 200 New Jersey avenue.

ADDITIONS TO THE FUND FOR MEMORIAL BUILDING

Several hundred dollars was added yesterday to the $100,000 fund for the national memorial building, according to a report of Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, chairman of the local campaign committee.

Judge Knapp contributed $200. The committee on employment service flags has added to the list of firms adding in the campaign in the last two days Goldenberg's Motor Company, the R. P. Andrews Paper Company, Saks & Company, Semmes Motor Company and Z. B. Blackstone. These, with others, will give $5 for each blue star and $100 for each gold star on the service flag of their firms. Gilbert Hahn of William Hahn & Co. added $100 to the fund's employment quota. I. Goldenberg also increased his service flag quota by a substantial personal pledge. Mrs. J. Campbell Cantrill, chairman of the committee on employment service flags, received the following letter from R. P. Andrews, president of the R. P. Andrews Paper Company:

Movement Indorsed Heartily.

"It is with pleasure that our firm accepts the proposition you have made to contribute to the National Victory Memorial building $5 for each blue service star and $100 for each gold service star."

"We are heartily in favor of the National Victory Memorial building, to be erected as a tribute to our soldiers, sailors and mariners. Washington is the ideal location for such a building, and we believe that Washington residents should help along this movement as much as possible."

"Wishing you every success in the campaign which is being so ably conducted by the women of Washington, and with congratulations to Mrs. Dimock, who is showing such a patriotic spirit and so much energy in her efforts to put up this building."

Mrs. Charles B. Howard, committee announced last night, will be chairman of the committee of women to visit homes of lawless men in the district to obtain subscriptions based on the records of their service flags. She will be assisted by Mrs. Timothy T. Ansberry.

D. A. R. GIVEN HEIRLOOMS OF COMMODORE BARNEY

Hero of American Revolution Was Personal Friend of Lafayette.

The Daughters of the American Revolution have received from Richard H. Thompson of Baltimore several heirlooms of Commodore Joshua Barney, one of the heroes of the American revolution and a personal friend of Gen. Lafayette.

Presentation of the heirlooms was made to the board of the organization last Wednesday afternoon and followed on the request of Mr. Thompson's aunt, Miss Elizabeth Y. Thompson and Mrs. Albert L. Gorter, both of Baltimore. These two women were members of the D. A. R., the Colonial Dames of America and the Order of the Daughters of the Cincinnati Society.

The collection included two gold swords of Commodore Barney, his favorite ring, a pair of epaulettes, a belt buckle, a pair of garter buckles, a miniature of himself painted by Incey, a bullet mounted in silver, received by him at the battle of Bladensburg, and two gold chairs, one of which was the one in which Commodore Barney was used by George Washington at Mount Vernon, and

Makes Wrinkles Go "As If By Magic"

Want to banish every wrinkle—from face, neck, hands—easily, quickly, completely? Try the new wrinkle-removing cream. Why? Because it is a scientific, medicinal and really truly assists Nature. Possessing remarkable astringent and tonic properties, it banishes the skin—thus naturally smoothing out the lines—and improves capillary circulation, thus helping to strengthen loose tissue and bring about a healthy condition. Yet, powerful as the wrinkle lotion is, it won't harm your skin in the least. And it's so easy to get the maximum benefit from your druggist's, and so easy to mix them. Just dissolve one ounce powdered azolectin in one-half pint witch-hazel—that's all. Rub your face in this—immediately every wrinkle and crease are affected, even the deepest. You are perfectly astonished and delighted with the result. You look like you're ten years from your age.—Advertisement.

WM. M. SPRIGG, JR., DIES.

Expires in Bayhead, N. J., Hospital Following Operation.

Word has been received here of the sudden death at the Lakeman Hospital, near Bayhead, N. J., of William Mercer Sprigg, Jr., son of Dr. W. M. Sprigg of this city. Mercer Sprigg, as he was known to his friends in Washington, was born and educated in this city. He was a student at the Bliss Electrical School and was spending the summer with his family at Bayhead, N. J. He was taken suddenly ill Tuesday, and as his condition became worse he was removed to the hospital and an operation performed. His mother, father and sister, Lois Sprigg, were at his bedside when he died.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but it is thought that the body will be sent to this city and interred in Oak Hill cemetery.

Brisbane Extends Interests.

NEWARK, N. J., June 27.—Lucius T. Russell, publisher of the Newark Ledger, announces that Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Evening Journal and Washington Times, has purchased an interest in the morning and evening editions of his newspaper. The conditions of the sale have not been definitely determined, he said, but will be incorporated in a written agreement to be signed next week.
