

A Day With the Girl Scouts at Autrey Park, Md.

Photos by International Film Service

Lowering the flag at sunset. The one hundred District of Columbia girls at the camp take part in this ceremony.

One of the principal pastimes at the camp is archery, and some of the girls have become experts with the bow.

Almost a bull's-eye.

Signaling from a tree-top to girls in the camp.

Capt. Charlotte E. Naylor, in charge of the Girl Scout Camp.

An old-fashioned race, one of the features of a bicycle carnival held in the stadium of Cortona Park, Bronx, N. Y. The event was one of the biggest of its kind ever staged in the east.

By International Film Service.

Poland's battalion of death, composed of women who helped the Polish army defeat the Ukrainians in the battle of Lemburg. The women in the front row are the commanders.

© Underwood & Underwood.

Miss Jean Robertson, sister-in-law of Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington base ball team. She has been a worker with the Motor Transport Corps for some time, and is now engaged in transporting wounded soldiers from Walter Reed Hospital to the base ball park.

By Staff Photographers.