

Alphen PARIS 924 F St. N.W. Present Distinctive Modes in DRESSES For Every Purpose of the Spring Day Remarkably Moderate Prices

For the coming spring we have a diversified collection of exclusive FROCKS

Pictured is an effective model developed in Puppy's Skin Satin, which naively features loops of two-tone satin ribbon; a touch of rose at the neck and belt adds piquancy...

$39.75 Offering Most Exceptional Value

Electric Cabinet Baths For Ladies and Gentlemen. Full bath, including electric cabinet, $1.50.

WARDMAN PARK HOTEL Phone North 10000.

Corset Sale Discontinued numbers of splendid CORSAID CORSETS, 25% off.

Betty Way 1110 F St. N.W. (Adjoining Columbia Theater)

J. Maurice Bird 1415 G Street Across from Keith's ALL FURS 1-5 to 1-4 off

Franklin Square Hotel Formerly the New Cochran Hotel Fourteenth St. at K.N.W.

Society

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM GIBBS MADDOX and their little daughter, who were guests of the President and Mrs. Wilson at the White House, returned to their home in New York this morning.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall returned to the New Willard this morning from a week's visit in Florida.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing will hold a reception in the Pan-American Union building tonight in honor of the delegates to the pan-American conference, which is holding its second session here.

The ambassador of Russia and Mme. Bakmeteff will entertain at dinner this evening at the embassy, in Cleveland Park.

The new Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Alexander will entertain at a large reception this evening at the Congressional Club from 8:30 to 11 o'clock.

The minister of Uruguay and Mme. Varela are entertaining at a reception at the legation in Massachusetts avenue this afternoon from 5 to 7 in honor of the delegates from Uruguay.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jeffries will entertain a dinner company of fifty young people this evening at the Chevy Chase Club, in compliment to their debutante daughter, Miss Elizabeth Jeffries.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch have been the guests for several days of the latter's sister, Mrs. Harriet Blaine Beale, who is accompanying them on their return to New York today.

Senatorial at Home. Mrs. Edward James Gay, wife of Senator Gay, will be at home tomorrow afternoon at her home, 2813 Connecticut avenue.

Mrs. McLean, wife of Senator George F. McLean, will be at home at 1520 New Hampshire avenue tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Owen, wife of the senator from Oklahoma, will be at home tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 in her apartment at 1901 Wyoming avenue.

Mrs. Lawrence C. Phipps, wife of Senator Phipps of Colorado, will be at home tomorrow afternoon at 6 o'clock at Single Oak, their suburban home on Woodley lane.

Mrs. John B. Kendrick, wife of Senator Kendrick of Wyoming, will not receive tomorrow afternoon, as she has been called to California on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. Andrieus A. Jones, wife of Senator Jones of New Mexico, will be at home tomorrow afternoon at 2400 16th street from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Emmet C. Gudger will be at home tomorrow afternoon at 2400 16th street.

Mrs. George A. King will not be at home tomorrow afternoon, but will receive the following Thursday.

Miss Wilson Entertains. Miss Wilson occupied a box at the concert given yesterday afternoon at the National Theater by the Symphony Society of New York.

Gen. and Mrs. Charles B. Drake will be the hosts at a dinner of thirty-two covers this evening at the Chevy Chase Club.

Miss Natalie Sellers Barnes will entertain at dinner this evening at the Chevy Chase Club in compliment to her house guest, Mrs. Lawrence L. Bruff of Pennsylvania.

MISS SARA HINES, of Tennessee, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Lind.

Damrosch of New York. The dinner was followed by a musical, to which a number of additional guests were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Mrs. Chinn, Mrs. Nina Chinn Walker and Miss Walker will entertain at a tea-dance at the Washington Club on Saturday, January 24.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

The Royal 306 9th St. N.W. (Second Floor) High-Class Chinese-American Restaurant Merchants' Lunch 11 A.M. to 2 P.M.—55 cents

Music—Dancing Special Dinner 5 P.M. to 8 P.M.

Let Cuticura Be Your Beauty Doctor

20% Reduction on all FURS

Stinemetz F, Corner 12th

To Keep Skin in Fine Condition in Winter

editor of the Women's Law Journal of New York. Members of the Women's Bar Association of Washington will be the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keith were dinner hosts Monday evening for the curator of Harvard University Museum, Dr. Robert W. Slayles, and Mrs. Slayles.

The recitals to be given under the auspices of the Stonewall Jackson Chapter, U. D. C., this evening and tomorrow evening at the New Willard at 8 o'clock promise to be among the most delightful of the season.

Judge George E. Downey of the Court of Claims and Mrs. Downey, who have spent several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in Washington on Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Barney and her daughter, Mrs. Walter E. Hutton, will hold their last at home on Friday afternoon. They will shortly leave Washington to meet Mr. Desfaves-Barney on his arrival from Panama.

Mrs. Richard Levering of New York will entertain a large dinner company at the New Willard tonight for the Bolivian delegates to the pan-American financial conference.

Mr. and Mrs. David I. Porter and Mrs. Mattingly will not be at home Friday, January 23, on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Reclamation—That is what Dry Cleaning and Dyeing properly done often is. Perhaps 'restoration' is a better word.

HELEN CORBIN HEINL PIANIST and TEACHER

Ellis & Arnold Auctioneers Art Galleries 1323 G St. N.W.

KITTEL For Automobile Service 1625-1627 You Street

SPECIAL REDUCTION On Remodeling of Furs

NEW ENGLAND FURRIER 1405 F St. Main 7689

THE LOUVRE 1115-1117 F STREET

Music—Dancing Special Dinner 5 P.M. to 8 P.M.

Let Cuticura Be Your Beauty Doctor

20% Reduction on all FURS

Stinemetz F, Corner 12th

To Keep Skin in Fine Condition in Winter

Muslin Underwear A Great Big Assortment

You Need a Coat! Here's a Chance to Get a Splendid Coat at a Real Bargain Price!

Clearance These prices are designed now to accomplish clearance in a hurry.

Of Suits Up to $65—$29.50

Of Dresses Up to $55—$29.50

Of Evening Gowns None excepted. All Evening Gowns and Dance Frocks have been 25% cut

Of Coats Up to $69.50—$42.50

Frank R. Jelleff 1216 F St.

Extra Reductions In effect tomorrow—Thursday—on our entire stock of fine Evening AND DINNER Gowns

Misses' Evening Dresses

SIGMUND'S The Little Shop of BIG Values

You Need a Coat!

Muslin Underwear

You Need a Coat!

crystals and rhinestones and a diamond necklace and string of pearls, from which a miniature jeweled international flag was suspended.

A number of diplomats were present in the brilliant company which thronged both ballrooms.

Confederate soldiers following the new dance music, with some graceful civil war steps thrown in, and the company grew wild with enthusiasm when the orchestra played "Dixie" as an opening for the ball.

Mrs. Alice Barney and her daughter, Mrs. Walter E. Hutton, will hold their last at home on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of several weeks in their home in Pittsburgh and a short stay in New York.

Col. J. M. Shindel, a former resident of Washington, but now of Lebanon, Pa., and his daughters, Miss Virginia O.E. Shindel and Miss Triscilla C. Shindel, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, widow of Capt. Bulmer, U. S. N., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, will go to Philadelphia today.

Miss Ida May Moyers, president of the Women's Bar Association in the District of Columbia, will give a tea at the Women's City Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Alice Parker Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta have returned to their apartment at the Willard, after a visit of