DIAZ DEPORTED

Will Start for Exile With Fifty Loyal Companions. Coming to U. S.

MEXICO CITY, October 6.—Felix Diaz, who surrendered Monday night to Gen. Guadalupe Sanchez at Tlapacoyan, state of Vera Cruz, and has been taken to the city of Vera Cruz, will be deported, says a statement issued at the presidential offices here. He will be placed on the first steamer leaving port, together with fifty of his followers, who have chosen to accompany him in exile.

During his negotiations with the government, Diaz made a number of demands as conditions upon which he would agree not to take up arms against the present regime. These included recognition of the rank of all chiefs and officials under his command, the demobilization of his men under conditions similar to the mustered-out personnel of Francisco Villa, with grants of land, implements, seed and food supplies and the return to him of all possessions seized by the Carranza administration and valued at 1,200,000 pesos. In addition, he asked for 25,000 pesos in gold and permission to reside anywhere in the country.

Because of its decree affecting those who participated in the revolution resulting in the death of President Madero in 1913, the government refused to allow Diaz to remain in Mexico, but was willing to grant his other demands. Diaz insisted upon remaining in the country, whereupon his arrest and deportation was ordered.

His apprehension, officials say, leaves not a single man in arms against the present government.

Will Be Sent to U. S.

VERA CRUZ, October 6.—Felix Diaz, who surrendered Monday night to Gen. Guadalupe Sanchez, will be deported to the United States, according to reports here. A special car was placed at the disposal of Diaz during his trip to this city and was attached to a military train. A telegraphic conference between Diaz and Provisional President de la Huerta took place last night, it is said.

FILM WILL OPEN HERE.

"The Woman in His House" to Have First Showing.

It was definitely stated by William H. Rudolph, personal representative of Louis B. Mayer, who arrived in the capital yesterday, that the much-talked-of picture, "The Woman in His House," will be given its world premiere in Washington the week of October 10.

The Washington presentation of this film, which is stated by those who have privately viewed the laboratory print to surpass "The Miracle Man" in interest, will establish the national exhibition value of the picture, and serve as the basis upon which territorial assessments of rental charges will be fixed for the entire United States.

"The Woman in His House" will be first shown simultaneously in both Crandall's Metropolitan and Knickerbocker Theaters.

DETAILED FOR DUTY HERE.

Lieut. Col. Francis M. Maddox, 4th Alabama National Guard, has been detailed for duty with the Regular Army and assigned to the office of the chief of the Militia bureau, War Department, this city.
