

Whisky Worth $20,000 Seized; Brief Telegraph News of U. S.

By the Associated Press. BALTIMORE, January 15.—Two New Yorkers, operating an automobile truck loaded with 250 cases of whisky, valued in bootleg prices at $20,000, were captured and the whisky and truck seized by Field Agent Charles W. Hand and Operative Julian Edmond today, soon after the truck had left the Pikeville distillery, en route to New York.

These arrested are Louis Schulman, twenty-six, 161 Warren street, New York; Samuel Katz, twenty-seven, 402 Hewes street, New York.

City Bandits Get $1,370. ATLANTA.—Two robbers perpetrating a bold hold-up here today when they entered the offices of the Southern Heating and Plumbing Company in the Flatiron building and robbed the manager, Lawrence T. Allen, of $1,370 in cash. Two shots were fired at Kent by the bandits, but he escaped injury.

Workers Vote Decrease. PEORIA, Ill.—One thousand employees of the Hilt Manufacturing Company today voted to accept a wage reduction of 15 per cent effective February 15, and to make an effort to increase production 25 per cent.

Police Shoot Bank Bandits. KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Two of four bandits who attempted to hold up the East Side Bank in an outlying district here, were shot and seriously wounded by a motor cycle policeman who waited in the bank after police had received a tip that a robbery was planned.

Seek Work for Veterans. NEW YORK.—The American Legion has announced it had begun a national survey of the unemployment situation as it affects veterans. Employment bureaus scattered through the country are to exchange information in an effort to reduce useless migration by job hunters and find work for men and women who saw war service. The census from small towns and rural communities to cities is particularly opposed by the legion employment officers, it was added.

K. of C. to Meet. NEW YORK.—The thirty-ninth annual international convention of the Knights of Columbus will be held in San Francisco the first week in August. This decision has been reached by the supreme board of directors, it was announced.

FIVE SUSPECTS HELD IN MISSISSIPPI MURDER

Two White Men Arrested at York, Ala., Said to Have Left Freight Train.

MERIDIAN, Miss., January 15.—Further arrests in connection with the slaying yesterday of Moody Price, Meridian lawyer and former United States commissioner and deputy clerk, who was hacked to pieces with an ax, are expected to follow the detention today of one man and two negro women, according to announcement by Chief of Police Monette.

No motive for the killing has been established. Two white men were arrested early today at York, Ala., and are also being held there as suspects in connection with the search being made for those responsible for the killing.

Bloodhounds worked all last night, making many circles and finally losing the trail near a railroad track, York, Ala., where the two were arrested, is about thirty miles from here. Police announced they would seek extradition papers.

"DELTA TAUS" BANQUET.

Local Chapter of Fraternity Entertains Initiates at Annual Gathering

The Gamma Eta Chapter of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity held its initiation banquet last night at the New Ebbitt Hotel, during which "frat" yells and songs intermingled with the courses. About eighty members of the local chapter were present including four congressmen.

Among the guests of honor were Bruce Bielanski, president of the national Delta Tau Delta Fraternity; Frank Rogers, editor of "The Rainbow" the fraternity publication; Senator Park Trammell, Representative Fred C. Furnell, Representative Lemuel P. Pagett, Representative William W. Hastings, and C. H. Rowell, of the United States Shipping Board.

The initiates included George W. Askew, J. Nelson Anderson, Alexander H. Bell, Jr., James B. Berryman, Paul H. Baker, Frederick M. Bradburn, Carl C. Crowe, Joseph N. Colburn, Edwin H. Evans, Charles F. Foley, Douglas W. Macomber, Robert E. Newby, William C. Prentiss, Jr., and K. Parrish Wood, Jr.

Officers of the Gamma Eta Chapter are W. P. McCoy, C. A. Smith, R. M. Nichols, F. E. Shoemaker, L. Hollis, R. Anderson and R. S. Shreve. Dr. Daniel Berden is the advisor of the chapter.

Late Reward for Hero. OBERLIN, Ohio.—Homer H. Johnson of Wilson, N. Y., a sophomore at Oberlin College, is to receive a medal at a special ceremony presided over by Gen. O'Ryan, commander of the 7th Division, January 20, at Niagara Falls, for bravery during the battle on the Hindenburg line, according to notification received by Johnson.

Refuse 20 Per Cent Cut. GREENSBORO, N. C.—After refusing to accept a 20 per cent cut in wages announced by the builders' association, local carpenters' union officials said they would deal directly with the public, ignoring the builders' association.

Electors Must Sign Votes. RICHMOND, Va.—That it will be necessary for the Virginia electors to assemble to attach their signatures to an envelope containing the state's twelve electoral votes for James M. Cox for President and Franklin D. Roosevelt for Vice President, is the opinion expressed by high state officials here. Vice President Marshall on Thursday declined to receive the ballots, because they were not prepared in proper form.

Bank Bandits Escape. NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The North Nashville branch of the First Savings Bank and Trust Company was robbed at noon yesterday of a sum estimated at between $100 and $1,000. Manager Ed Gregory said he first noticed two men in the bank when one, more than six feet tall, asked change for $5. The next moment he found himself and a companion covered with a revolver. They were forced into the vault, while the bandits got the money and hurriedly departed.

May Build Big Plant. CHARLOTTE, N. C.—Officials of the Southern Power Company have authorized the announcement that in the event the company is successful in its efforts to revise its schedule of rates for industrial power now being supplied textile and other manufacturing plants in the two Carolinas, it will begin immediately the construction of a sixty-horse power plant on the Catawba river at a cost of more than $10,000,000. The fact that the statement is authorized at a time when J. B. Duke, president of the Southern Power Company, is in the city is taken as evidence.

Dies on Vacation. MIAMI, Fla.—The body of H. C.

Knight, prominent business man of Bridgeport, Conn., who dropped dead here from heart failure, will be taken north for burial, it is announced. He had apparently been in good health up to the time of his demise. Mr. and Mrs. Knight arrived two weeks ago for the purpose of spending the winter here.

Singer Cuts 20 Per Cent. ELIZABETH, N. J.—The Singer Manufacturing Company, makers of sewing machines, employing 8,000 workers at its main plant here, has announced an immediate reduction in wages of 20 per cent. It will not affect salaried employees.

"Akron Only" Sign Out. AKRON, Ohio.—In an effort to stop the influx of unemployed to Akron, notices that only residents of Akron are being hired have been sent to labor exchanges in Ohio and adjoining states, city officials announced. Nearly 5,000 men have come here since the first of the year seeking employment.
