Canton Crepe Dresses

Hold the Center of the Stage Among the New Arrivals

—There are hosts of beautiful models—we can describe but a few of them. You must come in to see them for yourself to fully realize how stunning they are.

—Coat styles, with contrasting color facing on collar and cuffs, with entire tunic lined with the contrasting shade; has daintily embroidered georgette vestee and novel ornaments in two-tone effect, round neck model; three-quarter sleeves, belt.

—Another is a straight-line model, with pleated skirt, vest front, three-quarter sleeves.

—Still another is an all-over braided canton crepe, with little touches of contrasting color, wide sash of crepe de chine.

—Another is a slit or panel effect, embroidered in silver, and made up over a contrasting color foundation for the waist part; the panels are loose except for being caught in at the bottom of the skirt.

—A straight-line model has dainty organdy collar and cuffs, with rows of buttons trimming the skirt.

—One is a low-cut front style, with embroidered georgette vest; skirt is trimmed with rows of bronze beads.

—We also have at these prices plenty of the new and popular taffetas, crepe de chines and satins.
