

HAMILTON COLLEGE ASKS ENDOWMENT OF $700,000

Drive for Fund Already Begun. With Total of $370,000 Conditionally Pledged.

Another college drive has been started. Hamilton College in central New York, the alma mater of many illustrious men, is in need of additional funds, and an effort is being made to raise an endowment of $700,000. Elihu Root, a Hamilton alumnus, when here a few days ago attending the meeting of the American Society of International Law, of which he is president, said that the project is a meritorious one. He is a member of the board of trustees of the college and has contributed largely to its support.

Dr. Frederick C. Ferry, president of Hamilton, was in town last week and said that additional funds are required because the cost of instruction has doubled and the cost of maintenance has multiplied many times. At least $700,000 is needed to keep the college going at its best. The general educational board has offered to give $200,000 if friends of the college contribute $500,000. To make it easier ten members of the board of trustees have pledged a total of $170,000. This means that only $530,000 must be raised. The manager of the endowment fund campaign, will visit Washington soon to present the matter to the local alumni. Leroy Parker, residing at 1355 Perry place, is president of the Hamilton College Alumni Association and Ralph W. Stone of 2739 Macomb street is the secretary.

Officer's Bed Roll, Used in France, Lost Two Years, is Restored

Special Dispatch to The Star. GAITHERSBURG, Md., May 14.—Lieut. Henry J. Piecher of Bedford, has just received from France his bedding roll, which had been lost two years. It contained also two uniforms, boots, shoes and other personal articles.

On September 28, 1918, when close to Montebellville, in the Argonne sector, and in the midst of hard fighting, Lieut. Piecher was wounded by a machine gun bullet and on his return from the hospital his bedding roll was missing. Repeated efforts to locate it failed and it has been wandering around for several years before reaching its owner.

388 FAMILIES RECEIVE CHARITY DURING APRIL

Society Here Reports 80 Per Cent Increase Since a Year Ago.

Neighborhood visitors of the Associated Charities had an unusually busy time in April, according to a report made public last night. At this time of year, it is said, daily demands are expected to show some decrease as compared with the winter months.

This, however, was not the case, for the society had under care 388 families, as against 219 a year ago, an increase of 80 per cent. Eighty-five of these were families that came to the society for the first time. The sum spent in cash relief for the month was $2,712.

Among the causes bringing families to the attention of the society were unemployment in ninety-four families, insufficient or part-time employment in thirty-six, disability from industrial accident in six, tuberculosis in thirty-five, other physical disabilities in 222. Description of non-support was a problem in eighty-five of the families under care. Fifty-three families were suffering from bad housing conditions.

Provision savings stamps were sold to the value of $2,052.28, largely by volunteer visitors who made in the course of their collections, 3,658 calls. The Home Economist reported five mothers' clubs with twenty-one meetings during the month, twenty-one families given special instruction in home making, and twenty-nine individuals instructed in the group classes. Volunteer service was given by 153 different individuals during April.

devotion." Mrs. Ellen Dunn, in her will dated December 17, 1920, filed for probate yesterday, leaves her property in equal shares to her son, Frank J. Dunn and daughter, Johanna Lynch. The son is named executor.

BALTIMORE ARTISTS MARKING TIME PRAYING FOR MODELS TO SHOW UP

Special Dispatch to The Star. BALTIMORE, May 14.—Now it's the artists who have something to worry about. It's another shortage, but quite an unusual one for Baltimore, long noted for its "Southern beauties."

Lack of models is what is causing so much concern in the local art world. Apparently, there has been an exodus of those young ladies who are willing to pose variously costumed and otherwise, for nearly all the city's sculptors and portrait painters are at a loss to find subjects.

Many artists have spent much time seeking models—in fact, they are weeks and even months finding some one who will meet special requirements. And a model has to be developed. A girl cannot just "be a model," she must "earn how." When she does learn and has attained a fair degree of "modeling," she finds that there is practically no field for her here, because her "type" has been "used" by all the local talent, who are always casting about for something new. One model cannot pose over and over again for the same artist, or his work will become "dead."

Quite a few Baltimore girls become models, but not many of them stay here to engage in the profession. The artists admit that the local field is limited, and after a few weeks the models find it difficult to get "models." Therefore, they depart for better-known art centers.

Those pearls make a lovely birthday gift. Thank you so much. But I have a confession to make. This isn't really my twenty-fourth birthday. I've always had about my age. Her husband—that's all right. Those aren't genuine pearls.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY

WE are celebrating our first anniversary and look back with pardonable pride over a year of wonderful accomplishments. The people of Washington were quick to appreciate the high character of merchandise we are showing, and noted with pleasure the very reasonable price—as a result, they were most liberal in their patronage, unstinted in their praise and most free in recommending us to their friends.

To fittingly commemorate our First Anniversary we have prepared a number of "Bargain Surprises" to show in a most substantial way our appreciation of what has been done for us.
