NEW LABOR UNION TO FIGHT A. F. OF L.
1,000,000 "Outlaws" Invited to Join Organization—Meetings With Employers Feared.
By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, November 28.—Plans for the formation of the new federation of independent labor unions and groups, to be known as the United Labor Council of America, in opposition to the American Federation of Labor, are announced here. The official call for a general convention in this city on January 7, 8 and 9, at which a permanent organization will be effected, has been issued by a provisional executive committee and a number of local unions.
Labor organizations outlawed by the American Federation of Labor and asked to join the movement claim a membership of more than 1,000,000 workers.
Leaders See "Treachery."
The convention call referred to "the treachery of reactionary leaders" and declares that the purpose of the new organization is "to combat the intensifying attacks of employers by organizing the workers into industrial unions managed through shop delegates' committees, and to establish a closer means of cooperation among existing unions which subscribe to these principles, to merge unions of allied crafts into industrial organizations and, finally, to amalgamate all existing progressive labor organizations into one body for the mutual protection of all."
Metal Workers Sign Call.
The call is signed by eleven locals of the Amalgamated Metal Workers of America, five locals of the United Shoe Workers three locals of the International Carpenters of America and fifteen other local labor organizations. The provisional executive committee is headed by Patrick J. McClellan of the Public Service Utilities Workers.

MINE CLERK AND WIFE MYSTERIOUSLY SLAIN
Couple Found Murdered on Front Porch of Home After Returning From Theater.
GALLUP, N. M., November 28.—Mystery shrouds the double slaying here last night of J. W. Blackwell, Jr., a mine clerk and his wife, who were shot to death on the front porch of their home, according to the sheriff's report. The bodies were discovered by C. E. Upland, a friend of Blackwell. Each had been shot once through the breast.
The couple, according to authorities, had just returned from a theater and stepped on the porch when they were shot.
Powder burns were found on the dress worn by Mrs. Blackwell. A local dentist and his wife who passed the Blackwell residence last night told the authorities they saw a woman, alone, running down the street after two shots were fired.
Neighbors corroborated the dentist's story of hearing two shots. One man told the police he saw a man with a leather coat running down the street after he had heard the shots.
Blackwell came here with his wife from North Carolina about seven years ago.

RED CROSS TO PUBLISH NATIONAL NEWSPAPER
The Courier Will Replace Bulletin, and All Divisional Periodicals on January 1.
Publication of a weekly Red Cross newspaper of national circulation, to be known as the Red Cross Courier, will begin immediately after January 1, 1922, it was announced today.
The newspaper will supplant the present National Bulletin and all divisional periodicals and will become the only publication recording the activities of the organization as a whole. It is stated that the Red Cross news originating in the international field and national and division headquarters will be incorporated in articles to be published regularly on the disabled veteran problem, disaster relief, junior Red Cross work, home service, nursing, health service, home hygiene, care of the sick, food selection, first aid and life saving, volunteer service, European child welfare work and other subjects of interest to the Red Cross membership.
Headquarters of the Courier will be in this city.

MAINE GOVERNOR SCORES COL. HARVEY FOR SPEECH
Rebuts Reflection in Statement That Faith of Fathers Was Kept Intermittently.
By the Associated Press.
AUGUSTA, Me., November 28.—Gov. Percival P. Baxter took exception in a statement to a remark by Ambassador George Harvey in a speech at London on Thanksgiving day. The ambassador was quoted as saying that in Maine the Pilgrims' sons kept the faith of their fathers only intermittently.
"I resent any reflection upon our past equally as I do upon the present," said the governor. "As for the ambassador's assertion that the Pilgrim sons installed a government of authorized caprices I suggest that caprice or capriciousness has no place in an accurate description of Maine character and institutions, past or present."
"The state of Maine from earliest times has stood for leadership in thought, achievement and adherence to principle. The faith of their fathers has been kept by the people of Maine and keeping that faith they have not been outdone by their neighbors in sister states."

The Stranger Within Our Gates
"Blare of trumpet, Beat of drum"—Heralded the advent of our visitors from over the sea. With a common interest we bade them a hearty welcome, expressed as humans always do, with light and noise. Now that the shouting and tumult have died and we are settling down to practical work, the motive back of it all is more than making an impression upon our visitors.
It is more than local, more than personal—the destiny of the world is in the hands of a few selected men. Just how they will account for their stewardship remains to be seen. Let us, at this season when the nations of the world sing and talk of "peace on earth," craft the word to the action and the action to the word.
