"Pen Women" Is Topic of Visiting Speaker

A cosmopolitan assembly will be found this afternoon at the clubhouse of the League of American Pen Women, when the City of Washington League will have as its honor guests at the weekly tea, from 5 to 7 o'clock, Mr. C. A. Montalito De Jesus, secretary of the Portuguese delegation attending the conference on the limitation of armament, who will give an address on "Pen Women," and Mr. Michio Ito, a Japanese artist, in Washington as an exponent of an exchange of art between the occidentals and the orientals, in connection with which Mr. Ito, with a group of orientals, has planned a series of Tuesday nights at the Central High School during February, on eastern art. "East Indian night," February 7; "Chinese night," February 14; "Japanese night," February 21; "Oriental night," February 28. It is on this subject that Mr. Ito will address the Pen Women and their guests.

Mrs. James Monroe will be at the tea table, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy De Muth Watson, Mrs. Aaron D. Newman, Mrs. J. J. Locher and Mrs. Albert Bush Manly.

Monday night will be devoted to the monthly business meeting of the District League.

Annual Charity Ball of Southern Relief Society Next Week

Event on Monday, February 6, for Benefit of Destitute and Disabled Confederate Veterans to Be Brilliant.

The annual charity ball of the Southern Relief Society, given to assist in the maintenance of destitute and disabled Confederate veterans and their dependents, will be one of the most brilliant ever given for the cause. It is the twenty-ninth ball, and will take place Monday, February 6, at the New Willard. The Washingtonians appreciate that a little interest and effort toward this ball add comfort and pleasure to the old, feeble, and perhaps too ill for longer self-care.

Invitations have been sent to governors of southern states, and many will be able to attend the ball. It is hoped that the President and Mrs. Harding will honor the occasion with their presence.

Boxholders include Secretary of Interior and Mrs. Fall, Assistant to the Attorney General and Mrs. Guy Despard Goff, Senator Hoke Smith, Mrs. Wilfred H. Du Puy, Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Mrs. E. Cole, Gen. Lee, Mrs. John M. Hickey, Mrs. Ernest K. Van Sickle, Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone, Mrs. Edith Fuller, Miss May V. Frey, Mrs. Elisha E. Meredith, Mrs. A. Wilkins Tuck, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Gustavus Werber, Mrs. Eli Bamford Smith, Mrs. Frederick C. Calhoun, Mrs. J. G. Walker, Mrs. Jesse Anthony, Mrs. Helen E. Hays, Mrs. Wallace Strasser, Mrs. Samuel B. Milton, Mrs. Frank Odenheimer, Mrs. E. Frey, Mrs. Thomas E. Covington, Mrs. G. Lawton Morgan, Mrs. Benjamin John Arthur Ray, Mrs. Benjamin Micou and Miss Dorothy King.

MRS. J. J. BOYLE
Of Boston, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keith at their home, on 20th street.

Reception in Honor of Gen. Julian S. Carr
