Beauty's Allure

AT all times your facial beauty is subject to harmful influences. There is a constant exposure to unusual degrees of heat and cold, and all the other conditions that tend to render you less charming. You can, however, instantly counteract all attacks on the delicate coloring of the skin, ever presenting the fresh, youthful glow that spans the line between beauty and plainness.

The complement of every known complexion is available in the unusual range of rouges and powders produced by Dorin of Paris, which are now sold in exquisite gilt ormolu containers, called Dorin'or.

You can easily select the correct combination to match exactly the natural color of your skin from the 10 shades of rouge and 8 tints of powder that bear the famous Dorin label. All are produced in compact form, and all may be purchased in the new Dorin'or boxes.

A SPECIAL OFFER

To introduce Dorin'or we will send, for a limited time only, the smallest size, containing one compact of the rouge or powder, for 5c extra, or the double size, with compact of rouge and powder, of any desired shade, for $1.00. The pure size is $1. In your letter give the color of your hair, eyes and skin.
