

THE HUMAN SIDE OF BANKING, NO. 15

What Reward Would You Give?

Suppose you lost some securities, worth, we will say, $1,000. What would you give to have them returned?

Some people would pay $50 or $100, and think they were getting off easy. Yet these same people would hesitate to spend a few dollars a year on a Safe Deposit Box.

It is much easier and less expensive to keep your valuables in a Safe Deposit box, where they ARE SAFE, than it is to get them back after they are lost or stolen.

We have Safe Deposit Boxes as low as $2.50 a year that protect thousands of dollars from loss or theft.

FLIERS TAKE WING FOR 900-MILE TRIP

Portuguese Trans-Atlantic Aviators on Most Hazardous Leg of Journey.

By the Associated Press.
PORTO PRAYA, Cape Verde Islands, April 18.—Two Portuguese transatlantic aviators, Capt. Coutinho and Sacadura, hopped off at 8:50 o'clock this morning for St. Paul's Rocks on the third and probably most dangerous leg of their flight from Lisbon to Rio Janeiro.

Their route lay over 900 miles of water, devoid of marks or guide-ships, and they expected to reach the rocks, in mid-Atlantic, in ten to twelve hours flying.

The aviators flew their plane here from St. Vincent yesterday in preparation for today's start, conditions here being more favorable for a successful get-away.

Landing May Be Difficult.
The landing at St. Paul Rocks is expected to be difficult, as there is only a small bay or opening between the two islets on the northeast side. This bay or cove is only fifty-six yards across at the entrance and 100 yards long, and presents some difficulties, even to vessels, except in the most moderate weather.

The seaplane is awaited at the rocks by the Portuguese cruiser Republica, which is carrying a quantity of gasoline and oil, and which will broadcast the news of the aviators' arrival.

Further Flight Outline.
From St. Paul Rocks the intrepid aviators plan to fly to the island of Fernando Noronha, approximately 350 miles off the Brazilian coast, and from there to Pernambuco.

YALE CLUB FOR BOYS.

Alumni Plan to Arouse Special Interest at Meeting Here.
Much interest has been aroused in school and college circles of Washington over the formation of the Junior Yale Club, the first organization of its kind in this city and one of the very few in the whole country. Its purpose is to bring together the schoolboys of Washington who are going to Yale and also those who have not decided on their college, in order to give them essential information about the university, as well as to establish friendly association between them and the local Yale alumni.

At the first meeting of the organization at the Racquet Club, tomorrow night, the most representative Yale undergraduate, Malcolm Aldrich, this year's foot ball and base ball captain, will be the principal speaker. Slides and moving pictures of life at Yale and the Washington scholarship will be shown, and refreshments served. Maj. A. E. Foote will be master of ceremonies, and Thomas G. Shearman, song and cheer leader. A large number of alumni and "sub-freshmen" will be present.

PLANS BIG CONFERENCE.

National Meeting to Be Held on Muscle Shoals.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 18.—A national conference on Muscle Shoals, to be held at Muscle Shoals May 22-24, under auspices of the Southern Commercial Congress, with Thomas R. Preston of Chattanooga, president of the Congress, presiding, was announced today by Dr. Clarence J. Owens, director of the southern commercial organization in Birmingham and southern director of the Gorgas Memorial Institute.

Delegates will be named by the chief executives of the forty-eight states, mayors of cities and executives of the commercial organizations. It is expected that thousands will gather in the tri-cities of Tusculum, Sheffield and Florence for the conference. Local commercial organizations in those cities will complete all arrangements for the meeting and visitors to inspect each project of the great government resources at the shoals.

SIGNALMEN IN PAY PLEA.

Tell Rail Labor Board Outside Workers Get More Money.
CHICAGO, April 18.—Presenting statistics to support his contention that signalmen employed by railroads were receiving less than those employed in similar lines of work in the building trades, David Heit, president of the Brotherhood of Signalmen, before the Railroad Labor Board, declared that men in the organization he represented were receiving 10 cents an hour less than those outside railroad employment. He also presented tables showing the cost of living compared with last year.

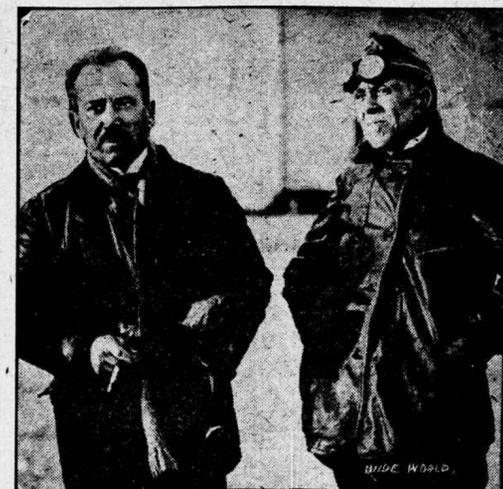

The signalmen completed their answer to the board yesterday in regard to the railroads' request for a wage decrease.

COL. NOYES RETIRED.

MAKING AIR FLIGHT FROM PORTUGAL TO SOUTH AMERICA.

The flight from Lisbon, Portugal to Rio Janeiro, Brazil (is being made by two Portuguese aviators. Left, Lieut. Capt. Sacadura, and Capt. Gago Coutinho. They reached Cape Verde Islands a few days ago, and hopped off this morning to make the third leg of their flight from that point. The photo shows the aviators, before leaving Lisbon.

DRIVER HELD AT INQUEST.

Must Answer to Grand Jury for Death of Two Children.

Coroner Nevitt yesterday afternoon conducted an inquest at the morgue in the case of Oswald and Irene Gibbs, colored children, who were injured at New Jersey avenue and Q street Sunday afternoon by the automobile of James A. McBaddy, 108 Henning road northeast, dying shortly afterward. McBaddy was held for action of the grand jury.

Shortly after the accident the driver told the police his brakes were faulty and he was unable to stop his machine in time to prevent striking the children. He said, also, the accident resulted from his making an effort to avoid a collision with another automobile.

The Cause.
From the New York Sun.
"You don't seem to be so enthusiastic over base ball as you used to be." "No; the wife is learning the game."

1,000 UNBURIED BODIES OF SOLDIERS DISCOVERED

Heavy Spanish Losses Inflicted by Moroccans—Entire Garrison Wiped Out.

By the Associated Press.
MELILLA, Morocco, April 14.—More than 1,000 unburied bodies of Spanish soldiers lie in the vicinity of Darqueband, the position recently recaptured from the Moroccans, according to reports reaching here from native sources. These bodies are scattered along a line four kilometers in length over valleys and broken ground.

The bodies are still in uniform, but their pockets have been turned inside out and rifled, these reports say. This is all that remains of the garrison commanded by Col. Araujo which occupied Darqueband before the disaster inflicted upon Spanish troops by the Moorish tribesmen last July.

As the Spanish troops advance in their new drive they see evidence of the results of the Beni-Urriaguuel chieftain's efforts to inspire confidence in the Moroccan inhabitants. The inhabitants have believed the assurances of the chieftains that the Spaniards would never again set foot upon their territory. Consequently, they had sowed crops and were disagreeably surprised when the Spanish columns advanced and destroyed their growing grain.

As a result there are behind the lines large numbers of hungry natives who frequently make raids at night upon the Spanish tents in endeavors to steal cattle and supplies.

The Boy Who Started to Town With a Hundred Dollars

The advice they gave him for getting on in the world was simple and familiar enough: "Keep what you have, and build on it. Be careful what you do and it will grow into more."

It's a safe rule—with money or health, but a good many overlook the rule with health, until they have lost what they had. Then it's hard to get a new supply.

Postum is a splendid help in saving health from the very common losses through the drug elements of tea and coffee—whose effects on the nervous system any doctor can tell you.

Thousands of people who think it wise to be as careful of their health as they are of their dollars are users of Postum. They find this famous cereal beverage a delightful drink with any meal, and it's free from any disturbing element.

You can begin with Postum today, with an order to your grocer. The road to health is a good road for anybody to follow. "Save what you have, and build on it," is sound policy for everybody.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.
