DEATH OF ALBERT M. READ DUE TO COMPLICATIONS

Member of Board of Directors, American Security and Trust Co., Succumbs in Hospital.

ALBERT M. READ.

Albert M. Read, chairman of the board of directors of the Security Storage Company and member of the board of directors of the American Security and Trust Company, died Saturday night at Emergency Hospital, following an illness of about three weeks. Death was caused by a complication of diseases, ending in pneumonia. He resided at 2716 Wisconsin avenue.

Mr. Read was born in England and came to this country in the early half of the nineteenth century, settling in Lyons, Mich. He enlisted in a Michigan regiment at the age of sixteen and served during the civil war. At the close of the war he came to this city, where he received an appointment in the Treasury Department. From that position he rose to head clerk of the life-saving service.

In 1890 he resigned from the Treasury to become manager of the Safe Deposit and Storage Department of the American Security and Trust Company, then being established. He remained at the head of this department and its successor, the Security Storage Company, until 1918, when he retired and became chairman of the board of directors.

Having studied pharmacy early in life, Mr. Read became associated with the National College of Pharmacy in Washington and served this institution for many years as professor of chemistry. He was for many years an active member of the Board of Trade and was long chairman of the committee on sewerage. He was one of the early members of the American Warehousemen's Association and was its secretary from December, 1909, to October 1, 1911, and president from 1907 to 1909. He also was a member of the Cosmos Club.

Upon the death of his first wife Mr. Read married Miss Dorothy Jordan of Bangor, Me., the marriage taking place in 1910. His widow and daughter, Miss Mary Ann Read, survive him. Funeral services will be held at the residence, 2716 Wisconsin avenue, tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

HONOR FIRST PRESIDENT.

Wreaths Placed at Tomb by People of Many Nations.

More than fifty wreaths were laid on the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon during the past year by individuals and associations representing many nations, according to a report read at the meeting of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the United States Saturday afternoon.

A number of high school students visited the home of George Washington Saturday while the meeting was in progress. At Friday's session Miss Alice M. Longfellow of Massachusetts read a tribute to the memory of Mrs. John Julius Fringle, vice regent for South Carolina since 1907, who died during the meeting of the association last year.

The meeting will continue at least until today, when the board of visitors from the state of Virginia, which is acting as host to the visiting delegates, will go to Mount Vernon.

CHARITY WORKER KILLED.

Physician Believes Extreme Pain Caused Plunge From Fifth Floor.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Believed by his physician to have been seized with a paroxysm of pain while ill from work among the poor of the city, Miss Anna MacEdward, thirty-eight years old, fell to her death from a fifth floor window of her Manhattan home. She was said to have belonged to a wealthy Canadian family.

Miss MacEdward, according to her neighbors, was in a cheerful frame of mind when she retired Saturday night and apparently was in better health than at any time since her breakdown three weeks ago.

EXPERT SWIMMER DIES IN DIVE AFTER LOST OAR

Futile Efforts Made to Recover Drowned Man's Body—Victim Was Hero.

In an effort to regain an oar that had slipped from a fishing boat at Benedict, Charles county, Md., early yesterday morning, Nicholas Keys Carstens, thirty-two years old, 234 13th street, northeast, an expert swimmer, was drowned. W. J. Proctor, a member of the party, returned to the city after notifying the Charles county authorities and told relatives of the drowned man. Futile efforts to recover the body were made yesterday afternoon by residents of Benedict.

Caretakers and four friends left here Saturday night about 8:30 o'clock and went to the popular Maryland fishing resort for an all-night and Sunday outing. They were in a large rowboat shortly after daybreak, when an oar slipped from the boat and drifted down stream. Being a good swimmer, Carstens removed his shoes and coat and went overboard.

Because of the swift current in the river the young man was unable to return to the boat. He sank in the deep water and his body could not be located by members of his party. Report of the drowning was made to residents of Benedict and the county authorities. Mr. Proctor returned to Benedict yesterday afternoon to assist in the efforts to recover the body.

Mr. Carstens was on the firing line four times during the world war and would have been there a fifth time had it not been for the signing of the armistice. He was slightly gassed and shell-shocked. Several

DEATH CLAIMS VETERAN OF ARMY OF POTOMAC

Capt. John J. Torbert in Practically Every Engagement—Will Be Buried at Arlington.

Capt. John J. Torbert, member of the Army of the Potomac in practically every engagement of the civil war and later an employe of the Post Office Department in this city, died Saturday afternoon at his residence, 3015 14th street, west. He was seventy-eight years of age.

Capt. Torbert was born October 2, 1843, in Berks county, Pa. He enlisted at the age of seventeen in Company C, 181st Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, which was comprised in the 5th Army Corps, and served in every engagement of the Army of the Potomac except the first battle of Bull Run. He was taken prisoner at the battle of Gettysburg, and was held in prison for six months in Libby prison. He was afterward exchanged and returned to his old company. He was later made captain and continued his service through the battle of Gettysburg, soon after which he received his honorable discharge.

Following the war, Capt. Torbert went to Iowa, where he engaged for some years in the lumber business. In 1885 he came to this city, and also engaged in the lumber business here for a number of years. He was then appointed to a position in the Post Office Department, where he served for sixteen years, being retired under the act of Congress last August. The Pennsylvania state monument at Gettysburg contains the name of Capt. Torbert upon its roster. He was a member of Shelby Norman Post of

In Memoriam.

BERRY. In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, ELLIE E. BERRY, who departed this life one year ago today, May 15, 1921.

Today recalls the memory of our loved one laid to rest. And those who still remember her Mother, who dearest one, because of thee The earth seemed fairer and more blue. Thy nobleness hath taught us how to prize A love that's strong for all eternity.

THE LOVING FAMILY.

CARRICK. In loving remembrance of our dear mother, MARY E. CARRICK, who died three years ago, May 14, 1919. Dear one, you have left us and gone to your God in His mercy which we best: You patiently suffered, bore gently your And now sweetly sleeping, your gain is our loss. HIS DEVOTED WIFE, MARY E. CARRICK, AND HER DAUGHTERS.

QUINN. In loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, WILLIAM HOWARD QUINN, who died one year ago today, May 15, 1921.

One year ago this day was shining. The sky was a canopy of blue; Our hearts were bright and cheerful. Because then we had you.

With our eyes you faded slowly. Growing day by day more frail. Bearing away all your suffering. With our hearts we miss you sore. How dear, dear, we are lonely and sad; Since you left us so suddenly no joy have we since.

We miss you each minute, each hour and each day; Our hearts were broken when you went away. But God, in His mercy, when our life's work is through, May bring us to heaven and unite us with you.

HIS LOVING WIFE, SON AND DAUGHTERS.
