

Purple iris at the White House, one of the features of Washington in springtime.

International

The knickered flapper goes fishing in the Potomac. A snapshot taken last week.

Ed. A. Photos

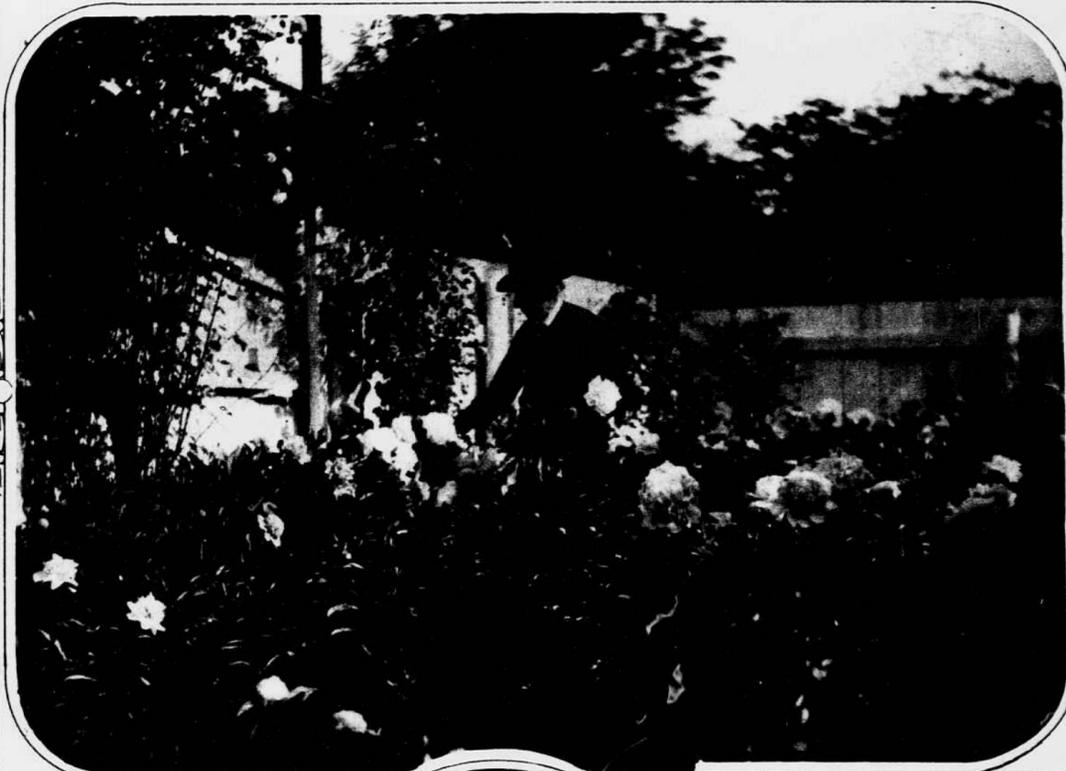

Reviewing stand Coolidge second from Gen. Nelson A. Miles

Baroness Von Thurmann, wife of the counselor of the German embassy, takes up golf on the Potomac Park course. She is usually accompanied by her little son Johann.

International

The wonderful peony garden of J. B. Hutchinson, 509 D street southeast. Hundreds of visitors have viewed the blooms this year.

Photo by Daisy Blanton

Architect's drawing of the Wash and New York avenue. The auditor capacity of 5,000. There will be an Ross P. Andrews. Harris & Ewing.

Thomas Bradley. Harris & Ewing.

Charles J. Columbus, secretary. Harris & Ewing.

Sidney West. Harris & Ewing.

Washington Auditorium and Officers and Directors

E. Lester Jones. By Buck.

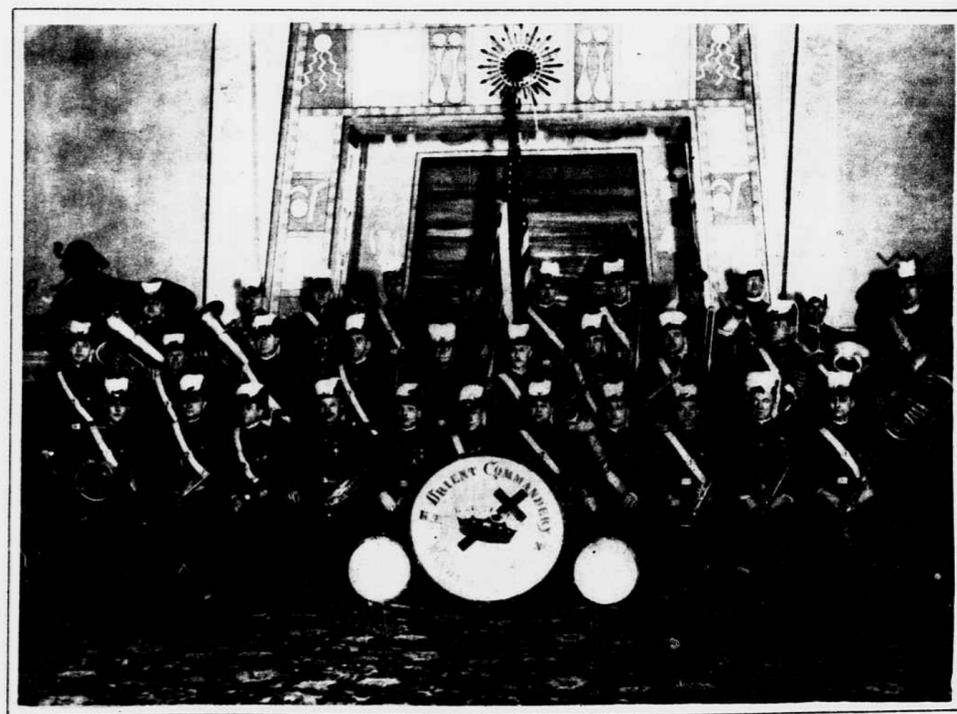

Anton Stephan. Harris & Ewing.

Joshua Evans, jr. Harris & Ewing.

W. W. Everett

The Orient Commandery Band, one of the fine musical organizations of the city. First photograph ever taken.

Photo by E. Priggen, staff photographer.