Officers installed at Naomi Lodge last meeting were Shirley Malinski, noble grand; Sarah Campbell, grand; Alice Thomas, recording secretary; F. Mae Raitz, financial secretary; Emma T. Strobel, treasurer.

Noble Grand Sarah M. Sanderson presented a jewel to the retiring noble grand, Emma J. Shea. A piece of business was presented by the installing officer by Past Noble Grand Emma T. Strobel.

Mitras Sanatorium, No. 100, according to an announcement by Grand Hyaslytee William F. Devent, has its center on the twenty-third annual session of the Supreme Orient at Providence, R. I., August 10, 11 and 12. Elaborate arrangements are being made for the comfort of all who attend. The Washington delegation will include several grand lodge officers. The Oriental Order of Humility and Perfection is the playground of Odd Fellowship.

August 25, a chartered steamer will leave Baltimore for a port unknown with officers and members of Mitras Sanatorium and Jahazi Sanatorium of Baltimore and more than 1,000 candidates. When out at sea two hours sealed orders will announce the destination on arrival at which degree work is scheduled. The candidates will include the governor of Maryland, the state secretary of Maryland, the mayor of Baltimore and several members of Congress. In connection with the event a committee meeting was held at Baltimore last night, at which Grand Warden Lawson was present.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

Tomorrow night the Boosters' Club degree team will visit Fraser Camp. A final dress rehearsal will be held in preparation for the class initiation to be held Tuesday evening, July 18, at the Boosters' convention.

Monday night the captains and staff officers of the 103rd Regiment of the Uniform Rank made arrangements for the encampment to be held at Albany from the 7th to the 12th of August. The companies of Washington will be joined by the units from Baltimore and Hagerstown and will enter train at Union station at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, August 6.

Albany Camp Friday night entertained many visitors. Jews were presented five of the most recent past consul commanders. Clerk Delos W. Thayer made the presentation speech and reviewed the early growth of Alpha, the first W. O. W. camp in the District. Short speeches were made by Past Consul Commanders Freeland, Morsell and Dickey. Many of the veterans were present, including charter members of over twenty years' standing.

Hickory Camp is holding drills twice weekly at the grounds north of the National Museum, Tuesdays and Thursdays, for participation in the events at Albany next month.

A growing attendance is said to have resulted from National Camp's move into larger quarters Thursday night. Past Consul Commander Greenberg congratulated his camp on its new activities and planned new entertainments for the future. The camp is directed to send invitations to all the camps to visit National at Washington Hall.

In Oak Camp Thursday evening, Col. James Freeland made a talk on the uniform rank. Capt. Carl A. Cole notified the colonel that a representative of Company A of Oak would accompany the Washington contingent, and Maj. Paul H. Judy and Lieut. Ben Hardie discussed the arrangements for the encampment.

Deputies Holland and McConnell of Elm Camp have written their quota of new applications for the Boosters' drive to increase membership. Capt. William A. Riley of Company C is endeavoring to get out his full company to support the degree team of Elm Camp.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Grand Chancellor Jacob Messbaum, assisted by officers of the Grand Lodge, will install a master of excursions for Calanthe Lodge tomorrow evening to succeed Irving Emmons, deceased. The election will be held that evening. Tuesday evening he will install William Inbody as master-at-arms of Franklin Lodge and S. M. Banks as master of excursions of Webster Lodge, to succeed F. V. Springman, deceased.

Webster Lodge will have work in the ranks Tuesday evening and installation.

At the meeting of Hermione Lodge, No. 12, Wednesday evening Grand Chancellor Messbaum, assisted by officers of the Grand Lodge, will install William J. Little as keeper of records and seal, vice O'Brien, resigned. A social will follow.

A delegation of members of Washington Company, V. O. M., left Wednesday evening for Pittsburgh, Pa., to attend the annual encampment of the militia on Saturday, July 8 to 15, inclusive. Col. H. C. Glading is a member of the official staff of Commanding Gen. Loomis.

A Pythian basket picnic will be given at 16th street and Reservoir Park Saturday, July 15. Music, base ball and athletics will provide a good time for all. Members of the brigade will arrive here on Saturday or Sunday, July 15 or 16, for a sightseeing trip of several days on return from the Pittsburgh uniform rank national encampment.

FRATERNAL ORDER OF EAGLES.

The past worthy presidents' team and the present officers' team for new membership, it is announced, have filed to date over thirty new applications. The average for the teams to date is over fifty new applicants per month.

The aerle expects to take over 3,000 members and their families to Chesapeake Beach on the annual excursion August 2. Tickets can be secured from the committee or from the manager of the club.

Frank Herzig, Conrad Mann, past worthy grand presidents of the grand aerle, and Representative E. R. Fuller have signified their intention to visit the aerle in the early fall. The aerle officers plan a huge initiation class for that occasion with a monster social session.

J. R. O. U. A. M.

Andrew Jackson Council, No. 5, will install its newly elected officers Tuesday night at 430 9th street northwest. Deputy National Councilor James L. Williams has been invited to take charge of the installation. Refreshments will be served. A joint meeting of the Penn Mar Committee also will be held.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The Royal Ladies of the Royal Arcanum will hold their July meeting at Kismet Council hall, 8th and F streets northwest, Saturday evening, July 15 at 8:30 o'clock. Entertainment features will be presented. Mrs. Bollinger, the regent, who has been very ill, will preside.

Hope Council, No. 1, at Naval Lodge Hall, 4th street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, Tuesday night, July 11, will install officers. Refreshments will be served. A lawn party for charitable purposes will be held soon under the auspices of Hope Council, No. 1.

PATRIOTIC ORDER SONS OF AMERICA.

Camp No. 2 met at 443 Louisiana avenue Friday night and elected the following officers: President, E. Cross; vice-president, J. Dumphy; M. of R., Mr. Barco; conductor, Mr. Crisman; inspector, Mr. Bickie; trustee, W. Owens; financial secretary, W. L. Snow; treasurer, Wm. Schenberger; recording secretary, F. A. Finacom. The next meeting will be held July 14.

talent will greet the guests. The famous bands and drill teams of these lodges also will entertain the members of Washington Lodge. San Antonio Lodge will be taken care of Saturday, when the committee will again do the honors. In addition, twenty-five other lodges will be taken care of during the week. All members of Washington Lodge are requested to help the committee in making the stay of the delegations enjoyable.

Chairman William Blackman of the Prostburg club states that the club is going ahead at full speed, and all members and their families who go on the trip are assured of one of the greatest times that the lodge has ever pulled off, with the band in attendance, the drill team and "The Jolly Corks." It is the desire of Exalted Ruler D. R. Nihon that Washington Lodge should have the largest delegation at the convention of the Maryland Elks, of which No. 15 is a member. C. L. Hanson and Hiram Wantz of the Hagerstown (Md.) Lodge of Elks, announce that Hagerstown Lodge will have more than 500 in attendance, including a band of sixty musicians in special uniforms, August 15 and 16.

The lodge's membership committee has declared a recess until the first Tuesday in September.

Secretary William S. Shelby has asked those members whose cards are read April 1, 1922, to see him at once during the week. All members of a blue card has been called in and a blue card takes its place. This is important.

All visiting Elks in the city today are advised that the United States Capitol will be open for their inspection.

Chairman Fred Bersheimer of the orphans' outing committee states that the commissary department needs more Elks to assist in feeding the 1,500 little children, who will be the guests of the lodge at Glen Echo, Md., Thursday, July 27. Members are asked to register their names at once. The committee meets tomorrow night at 8 o'clock to complete final plans for the outing. The Elks' band, drill team and the "Jolly Corks" will help to entertain on that date.

Joseph Tenschert, chairman of the dance committee to entertain the visiting Elks, has announced his committee as follows: Mrs. J. Griffith and Mrs. Laurence, Misses Lillian Gates, Georgia Hill, Claire Hill, Thelma Arnold, Virginia Hill, Helen Swears and Mildred Booth, Messrs. Samuel Hoffman, Francis D. Fowler, H. E. Berstein, E. Crisman, C. E. Bickie, Earl Pirkins, John A. Tenschert, Cecil Cuffman, Witney Miller and Bert Rosenberg.

The "Jolly Corks" clown band will entertain the children of the summer outings; committee the later part of July. A band of funsters will assist St. Gabriel's Church at the carnival Tuesday.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

The Grand Divan of Alcantara Caravan met Thursday evening, Philip Buettner, grand commander, presiding. The main business transacted was the authorization of payment of expenses of the recent outing at Auth Brothers' farm at Camp Springs, Md., which was declared one of the largest and most enjoyable outings given by Alcantara Caravan in recent years. After the meeting James E. Collier, chairman of the committee on excursion to Norfolk September 2 to 5, reported that about half of the reservations had been engaged and that reservations will be closed as soon as possible.

For Keane Council's boosters' excursion to Atlantic City, reservations are said to be still open and filling up fast. The train will leave around noon Sunday, July 16. The managers of Steeplechase Pier and Rendezvous Park have extended invitations to the Boosters to be guests while in Atlantic City. At the council meeting Thursday evening "Bud Burns" will make his debut as grand knight. Among the business of the evening will be the election of a new warden to succeed Mr. Burns. This will be Keane Council's only meeting in July.

The "Kids of Columbus" are pronounced a rousing good time on Tuesday, July 11, when the Knights of Columbus migrate to Chesapeake Beach for their annual family reunion. Athletic events with handsome prizes have been arranged for the committee in charge. Games of every description, including a K. of C. inter-council tug-of-war, have been arranged. This is the seventh annual excursion and field day of the Knights of Columbus of the city of Washington. John J. King, chairman of Washington Chapter, heads the general committee for the excursion, which is under the auspices of that chapter. The proceeds are for the orphans' Christmas tree party.

State Deputy Charles I. Griffin will head the reception committee. He will be assisted by the five grand knights of the city. John E. Burns, lately elected grand knight of Keane Council, is now chairman of the committee on welfare for the excursion. Dr. John F. Donoghue is chairman of the committee on transportation.

Special music will be taken down to the beach by the music committee.

Monday night will be Knights of Columbus night at the carnival given by the parishioners of St. Gabriel's Church on the church grounds at Grant Circle and Varnum streets northwest. The Knights of Columbus Clowin Band will be one of the features of the evening and will take charge of the various attractions.
