SHIP AHOY

SEE how nicely you can cut around the outlines of the pictures and paste and fold them to make the cut-out. It will be a sailboat that you can sail back and forth past the beach party in front of the big clubhouse. Look! They do not like it, because when the boat goes by they cannot see you and you cannot see them. The Skipper of the boat and his friends do not care, tho, for they are having a good time sailing and catching some fish. I wonder if they will land at the club and invite all of the party to join them for a big fish dinner?
