

monial to the late King
ion.

World's greatest radio station
is opened at Neuen, near
Berlin. Communication between the station and River-
head, L. I., can be accomplished
in one-twentieth
of a second. Photo shows one of the big radio appliances.

Heros XII, winner of the Grand Steeplechase, one of the turf classics of France, with Jockey G. Mitchell "up." Photo taken just before the big race, when the racers were being led before the tribunes.

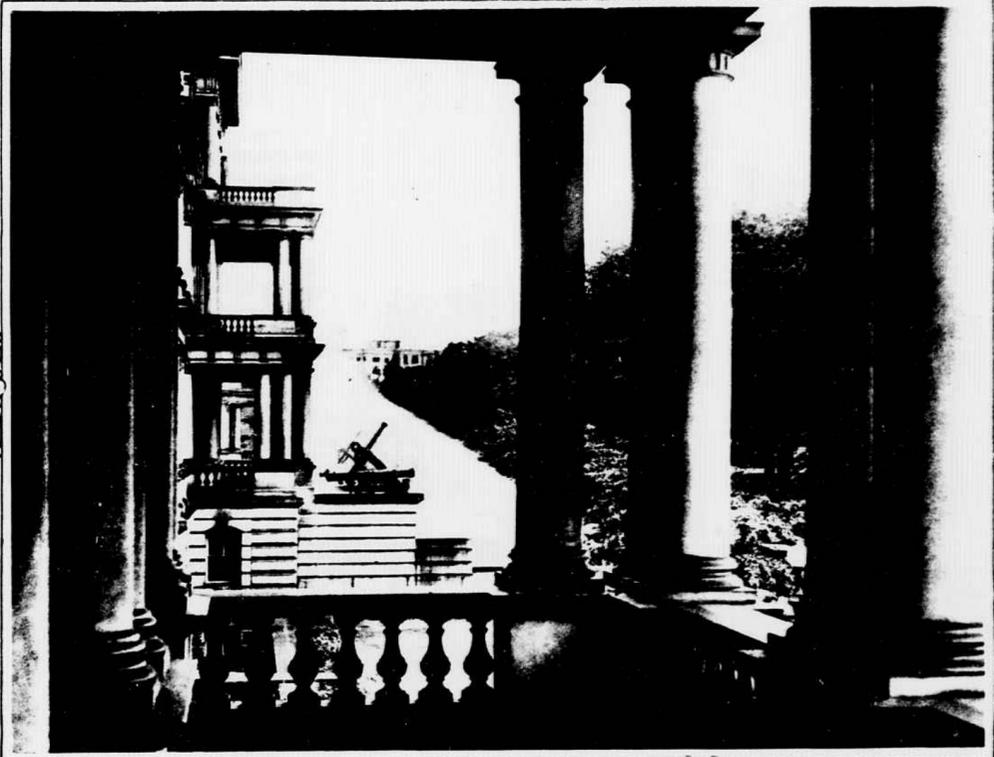

Sentinel aboard the Argentine training ship Presidente Sarmiento, anchored in the Hudson off New York city. The visiting ship is manned by a picked crew.

petition to have the Liberty Bell taken from gress. These youngsters will present the

The Washington
Monument
from a different angle
—the Pan-
American
garden.

Washing the State, War and Navy building with the fire department's equipment.

A Washington
graveyard
for automobiles — all
sorts of machines that have ceased
to buzz
along country roads.
A local dealer sells
the old tires
and special
metal parts
as junk.

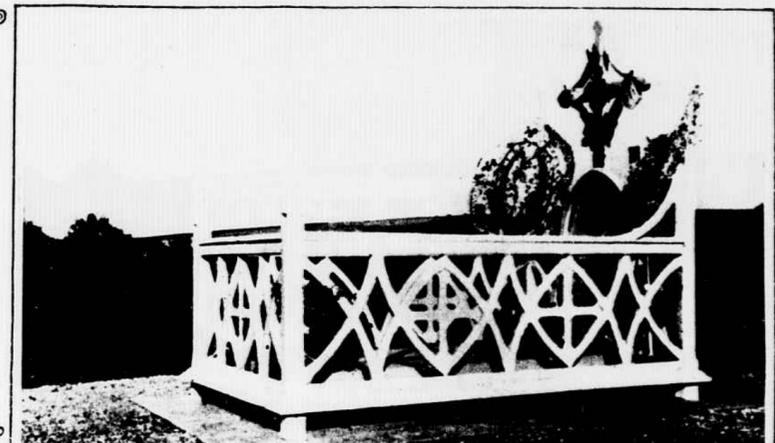

"Picture brides" from Rumania, Turkey and Armenia arrived in the United States, where they will be married, according to arrangements made by mail. The girls sent their photographs to this country, long-distance love followed, and the photo shows first meetings.

of Law, established in honor of the dean of the college.

Articles made with sugar by Eugene Concion, pastry cook at one of Washington's hotels. The eagle required forty pounds of sugar, and the other articles are a jewelry box, table ornament and table and lamp.

Latest photo of the grave of Quentin Roosevelt, killed in France during the world war. The young aviator fell just over the German lines July 14, 1918, near Chauney, where he was buried.