

beat way with husband from Los Angeles in search of work.

Judge Martin A. Knapp, U. S. court of commerce, says only remedy for evils of present day is general increase of wages.

Wu Ting Fang has appealed to U. S. to recognize Chinese republic.

Edgar Child, Rock Island, Ill., hunting ducks on Mississippi river. Boat capsized. End of Edgar.

August Renselmann, Vandalia, Ill., got in way of falling tree while hunting. It did.

Chas. H. McCleary, Kokomo, Ind., started to elope with Pearl Miller. McCleary's better half on same train. Sudden end of eloping scheme.

"Uncle Joe Cannon sails to inspect Panama canal." Who is this Uncle Joe Cannon person?

Gov. Aldrich, Nebraska, talked on "unwarranted assumption of authority by minor federal courts in nullifying state governments."

Gov. Aldrich referred to the sort of thing that happened. Tuesday when Judge Kohlsaat restrained the city from enforcing gas ordinance.

Federal Judge Landis urges that Pete Grosscup's place be not filled, that the judgeship be abolished. We always did think there was something to that Landis man.

State Food Inspector Owens, Terre Haute, seized 350,000 eggs shipped by Armour company, because they were put on sale without placard labelling them as storage eggs. Says Armour can be indicted. Indicting the Armour gang is the easiest thing we know. Getting them tried is different.

SEEDS KEPT IN SAFE

Seeds In a Safe

New York, Nov. 16.—The old Scotch firm of Peter Henderson & Co., of New York, has been keeping its stock of seed of a certain variety of cauliflower known as the "Early Snowball," in the safety deposit vault of the Mercantile Safe Deposit Co. for over 20 years.

The seed is worth at retail $40 a pound, but only the small fraction of an ounce of them is needed by the average gardener.

However, it is not because of