

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Trial of Dr. B. Clark Hyde for murder of Col. Thos. H. Swope to begin in Kansas City Monday.

Denver man bet Home-run Baker of Athletics was a Democrat. Baker says he wins.

Los Angeles judge says life in two rooms and a kitchenette responsible for divorces. Recommends garden plots for idle wives.

U. S. legation, Pekin, ordered all Americans to get out of Chinese interior. Anti-foreign outbreaks expected.

Abraham Kalinsky, 117, died at Baltimore. Claimed he fought at Waterloo under Blucher and witnessed burning of Moscow. Anyway, it's true he married for third time at 105.

Jacob Schiff says Taft and John Hays Hammond have aided Russia to keep out American Jews for the sake of "Business."

Hindu princess gave snake dance before "distinguished society" at N. Y. It must have been "distinguished society" to stand for it.

Masonic Grand Lodge of Scotland, may abolish the smoke nuisance. Ordered inquiry into admission of Jack Johnson to order.

"Eight men appointed to put an end to stockyards odor" The one in the courts, or the one down South?

Royal Pugh, Fort Worth, Texas, sought divorce from bride of six months. She killed him and herself.

Gladys Hinckley, "most beautiful woman in America," has introduced new fad in Washington society. Wearing snake jewelry. Token of how society stings, presumably.

All but $808,000 of John R. Walsh fortune gone. And to whom does that really belong?

Office building of Electric Wheel Works, Quincy, Ill., collapsed. Two men seriously injured. But they were only employes.

And Chicago judge last week ordered verdict against a workman who was injured by faulty elevator of Harvester Trust.

Mrs. Mary B. Lombard, Marshall, Mich., has had pet dog, which died of heart disease, buried in front yard, and it erecting $300 monument. Doggone it.

Medal for man who "has benefited humanity to greatest extent during year," awarded to Sir William White by Society of American engineer. Sir William reconstructed British navy—thus "benefiting humanity."

John Armstrong Challoner says 55 per cent of lawyers in country are crooks. And the 45 per cent aren't good lawyers, John.

Gideon Tupper, head of Seattle Vice Trust, until people of Seattle got on to him, has eloped with daughter of "Barney" Coffey, saloonkeeper, 63rd and Halsted.

"After showing that the policy of the company has been one of fairness to the employes . . ."

Jury of Los Angeles women refused to obey instructions of judge and find employer who wouldn't pay boy his wages not