WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO TODAY

Edward S. Murphy, 410 Ingle- | side, chief clerk for Chicago Belt Line R. R. Co., arrested, charged with embezling over $5,000.

Inspector Dorman, Desplaines street station, and Lieuts. Howard and Ambrose, two of his subordinates, found guilty of neglect of duty and discharged from police force yesterday.

Charges of a similar nature are pending against Inspector Revere, Capt. Baer and Lieut. Hanley of the North Side, and 12 plain clothes men of Desplaines street.

Sixty-one men arrested in a raid early today on pool and billiard hall of W. P. Mussey & Co., 67 W. Madison street. Charged with violating police order compelling such places to close at' 1 a. m.

Roy Harris, 156 W. Harrison street, rescued from river this morning at Rush street bridge, by two men who formed human chain. Taken to hospital and revived.

Judge Kavanagh last night blamed defects in law for prevalence of crime over country. Step to the head of the class, judge.

All suspects arrested in Kaufman murder case either released or exonerated by police.

To combat the high cost of living. Aurora is to have a municipal market, where consumers may purchase at cost.

There was almost a panic at the home of H. G. Burroughs, a medium, when two policemen "answered" Burroughs' call to the spirits. Audience thought cops were spirits at first. Why don't these cops answer a few of. the "material" calls for help throughout the city?

Choo Foo Horn sentenced to hang for murder of Lee Yip Wing, member of a rival tong. Choo is the first Chinaman ever given a death sentence in Cook county, if that is any satisfaction to him.

Motorman C. Fisher, Logan square "L," had narrow escape from death in crash of his train with Garfield express at Van Many pas-Buren and Market.

sengers bruised.

Philip Purpura found guilty by jury in Judge Landis' court of writing threatening Black Hand letters to South Chicago residents.

Edwin Bell, 17, 1125 E. 51st st., captured by motor cops after stealing auto.

Switch engine jumped track and hung over embankment at W. Taylor and Kedzie today. Engineer and firemen unhurt.

Peter Dupka, 2721 N. Ashland, burned by molten metal at International Harvester works, 1734 Fullerton, today. Will probably die.

James McCann, 1002 W. Kinzie, arrested, charged with robbing gunshop at 1328 W. Lake street week ago.

City sealer is after coal dealers who sell one grade of coal and deliver cheaper grade. Says number of complaints have been made

William Weisenberg, farmer,