
* "BIG SISTERS" GUARD FOOTSTEPS OF WAYWARD *
* GIRLS—MOVEMENT TO GIVE THEM A CHANCE *

A gentle, kindly woman stands in front of the judge's desk day after day in the New York juvenile court. She smiles and you love her for her simplicity and

She is Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, a human being in a world of human beings and conscious that they are her sisters and brothers.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt—A "Big Sister."

understanding. Instinctively you know that she has sounded the depths of human happiness and suffering and it has made her akin to people.

She is organizing the Big Sisters movement in the east to follow the work of the Big Brothers. It is her purpose to furnish a friend and guardian for every girl