

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

By Norman.

(The World's 20 Greatest Women, as the Junior Office Boy Picks them.)

n. y., toosdy—andy carniggy started a fine mess of trubbel when he handed out that there list of the world's 20 greatest men

noboddy agreed with andy, and evryboddy that had a press agent come to bat with his own list, they wont never get it settled in a milyon yeres

Now to make more fussin comes a club of sufferingers in shicago and gives out a list of 20 greatest wimmen and of course sum uther wimmen ses, not at all, them aint the ritè ones, here is the swell bunch of historickel hens and so they will fite it out till all hands is tired.

well, i supose you have gessed ere this that i got a list of my own of the dames that has smeared or is smearin their monickers on the pajers of history in the biggest letters

here they are, look em over

BY HOWARD MANN

Georgy Porgy, pudding and pie,
Kiss'd the girls and made them cry;

'Twas not the kisses made 'em sore,

Although they cried—they cried for more.

Thrift Above All Else.

A man whose illness threatened to develop into typhoid was taken to the hospital. Instead of growing worse he improved, and at the end of the fourth day, when his wife visited him, he asked to be taken home.

"But you have paid for a week," replied his thrifty spouse. "They wont refund the money. You had better stay your week out."—New York Herald.
