

ARE WINNING DANCING FAVOR FROM THE SPRITES OF THE YESTERTIDE

New York, Jan. 10.—Two new dancers are this winter weaning New Yorkers away from their affection for Pavlowa, Ruth St. Denis, Gertrude Hoffman and other idols of yesterday.

Victor Romer, 19, a San Fran-

Miss Violet Romer.

cisco girl, who never had a dancing master, and scored an immense hit last year when she appeared in London, is repeating her success as the dancing girl in "Kismet." Her dances are all of her own creation.

Mlle. Katrina Geltzer with the Russian troupe at the Metropolitan, is regarded by the critics as even greater than Pavlowa. Added to her wonderful grace and personal charm is the ability to express nearly every human emotion.

OBSERVATIONS

Envious eyes are on the tramp plutocrat these days. They can spend the cold spell in Florida.

Mary had a little cat,

'Twas white and black and yellow;

And pretty Mary loved it so
She never had a fellow.

Opportunity knocks at no door
until he has been invited.

President Taft's typewriter no doubt is practicing these days on the good old sentence "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party."

NEW MOTHER GOOSE

I had a speedy auto,
Its color black and gray;
I lent it to a chauffeur
To ride a mile away.
He humped it, he bumped it,
And ruined every tire;
I would not lend my auto now
For Rockefeller's hire.
