

The material is batiste and insertion of lace and guipure embroidery are used for trimming.

The yoke of this frock is kimona shaped and it has kimona sleeves. The yoke is formed by horizontal tiny tuck and the two-fold insertion.

The skirt has broader perpendicular tucks, and two bands of the guipure run up and down. This insertion encircles the skirt above two deep tucks. These also run round and round.

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, noted suffrage worker of Denver, refused to run for U. S. senator. She says "the time is not ripe."

Nome, Alaska, suffering coal famine.

According to Lowell Observatory astronomers, the Martians have built another canal in the last six weeks—one about 1,000 miles long.

Andy Carnegie is permitted to join the ranks of the beef baron employes, as having one of the most perfectly trained memories for forgetting discovered.

Mary and Annie Kovall, aged 6 and 3, were burned to death in fire resulting from lamp explosion in Kovall home, Ambridge, Pa.

Abner Hammond, 92 years old, and his wife, who is 80, arrived in San Francisco today from Lyons, N. Y., to "get a new start in life."

How long does Abner expect to live?

Leander Lindsten, Idaho miner, clad only in underclothing and socks, walked 4 miles through snow up to his waist for help for companion imprisoned in snow drift.

Clara Baroneowski, 14, leaped out of window of Wabash passenger train, on which she was being taken to industrial school, Adrian, Mich. Believed to have escaped without injury.

Harry Thaw says that if released, he will seek rest abroad. It is to be hoped that Harry will seek it far abroad.

Three cracksmen blew safe of State Bank of Newport, Beach, Cal., and escaped with thousands of dollars. Pursued by posses.

Conductor Tobias, of Urbana, Ill., killed in collision between two Big Four freight trains near Crawfordsville, Ind.

Texas convicts have collected $291 and offered this sum as reward for two convicts who escaped from road gang, which has been trusted on honor not to attempt to escape.

George Perkins, director in the Steel and Harvester Trusts, said to be collecting money for Roosevelt campaign.

Ormsby McHarg, who once referred to Roosevelt as "the little yellow dog under the Republican band wagon," also working for Teddy.

Mrs. Edna Hogan, 22, Philadelphia, threw 200-pound negro robber over shoulder and through