

$10,000 to Chevy Chase Golf club.

But the road WAS built, wasn't it? And Taft IS the most frequent user of it, isn't he?

Nomination of Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio, as ambassador to France, confirmed by senate.

Brothers and sisters of Edwin Hawley say ther're going to erect hospital to his memory in Chatham, N. Y.

Wonder if they'd think of doing that if Edwin hadn't left fortune of several millions to be divided among them?

House committee on postoffice has voted for appropriation of $270,000,000 to "try out" a parels post on rural routes.

This is our idea of a "try out" that comes mighty high.

Abdulu Piang, prince of the Moro house of Piang in the Philippines, is headed for this country to "get as many wives as he can."

Abdulu must have been reading about the ways of our "high society."

Silver spoon, 8 inches long, found in stomach of man who died of pneumonia, by surgeons of Univ. of Pittsburg.

This, however, ought not to encourage the habit of swallowing spoons.

Fourteen clerks of publishing firm, Minneapolis, quit work because ordered to cut out high heels.

J. Kuhno Kalaniana'ole, Hawaiian delegate to Congress, "accused" of trying to form political party out of native Hawaiians.

Why "accused"? Why wouldn't J. Kuhno and all the rest of it form political party out of natives? It's the Hawaiian natives' country.

Myrtle Arthur, 21, married to Wong Ping, wealthy Chinese merchant with stores all over the country.

Mrs. Wong Ping will now begin to be sorry.

Butter imported from New Zealand, and selling cheaper in Canada than the Canadian butter.

Query: If, after paying freight from New Zealand to Canada, New Zealand butter is cheaper than Canadian, what's the matter with the Canadian cows?

Atlantic City thinks 27 pound lobster caught there yesterday biggest known. How about the 385-pound one caught in the year 1908?

Chas. Myers, 19, St. Joseph, Mo., died having tooth pulled.
Blood poisoning.

W. M. Lanning, federal judge who was to have heard suit to dissolve steel trust, died at his home in Trenton, N. J., this morning.

MILL OWNERS TO GIVE IN TO STRIKERS

Lawrence, Mass., Feb. 16.— The mill owners gave into the striking workers this afternoon.

At a meeting of the Wool Sort-ers a letter from the owners of the Wood Mill, offering the extra two hours pay demanded, plus a five per cent increase in wages, was read.

The Wood mill is one of the
