

All other stock we shall purchase direct from the ranchers. From producer direct to consumer is our plan.

"We believe the scheme should and will succeed, and that it will be watched with interest, and, if successful, followed by other parts of the country. The consumers must choose between co-operation and being swallowed alive."

This photograph of the suffragist leader was taken as she was carrying away country produce sold by the New York State Women's Suffragist association at their fair. Dr. Shaw's 64th birthday was recently celebrated by the association.

CRITICISMS WERE MADE TO HELP LABOR-WILSON

At the meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor yesterday a letter was received from Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, in regard to attacks the governor is alleged to have made on labor while president of Princeton university. The governor said:

"I have always been a consistent friend of organized labor, and any criticism I have uttered with regard to it has been the criticism of a friend who was sincerely afraid that certain mistakes would mar the progress of a cause with which was tied up so much well-being of laboring men."

The governor, in response to questions from B. C. Dillon, chairman of the federation's grievance committee, said he could not remember uttering the statements attributed to him. He invited inquiry of New Jersey laboring men as to his stand on unionism.

A letter from Cornelius Ford, president of the New Jersey Federation of Labor, confirmed the statements of Gov. Wilson. A resolution adopted by the New Jersey body indorsing him was inclosed, as well as the texts of a number of labor laws passed under his administration and with his aid.

A motion to indorse the governor candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination was declared out of order, but his letter was well received, and his straightforward statement of po-
