

The Allens have bought up every Winchester cartridge in Pulaksi. Last night they broke into a hardware store at Mount Airy, twenty miles away from here, and stole the entire supply of arms and ammunition. They have food stored away at various places in the mountains.

—o—o—
GIRLS AND BOYS AND THE BRITISH COAL STRIKE

Here are two news pictures from the great coal strike in Britain and Wales. The upper shows pit girls at their sifting tables waiting for coal to handle. Below is a group of pit boys in their Newcastle district. Both photographs were taken on the last work day just before the strike began.