

turn up for trial and explained to judge that he had to stay home and wash the dishes. Judge was a married man, too, so it was all right.

Fist fights, hoots and jeers took up most of time at election of trustees of Grant Street Reformed church, Pittsburgh.

Doubtless The Inter-Ocean will be able to trace this state of affairs back to its causes, and discover that they are the popular agitation for the initiative, referendum and recall.

of Dr. John H. Musser, not a biologist who died in Philadelphia last Wednesday, has been found to weigh less than that of well developed child's.

Five killed, 30 injured by bomb thrown at religious procession marching through streets of Lisbon, Portugal.

Lina Cavalieri, the prima donna, who cost "Sheriff Bob" Chandler $300,000 by the simple plan of marrying Bob, is engaged again. The unlucky man is Leicien Muratore, tenor at Paris opera house.

U. S. secret service men and Texas rangers seized 15,000 rounds of rifle ammunition on train going through Texas. Was intended for Mexican rebels.

Marcus Aurelius Smith, U. S. senator from Arizona, made third attempt to get protest of Arizona legislature against Taft's nomination of Dick Sloan as federal judge of new state written in senate records.

Marcus Aurelius failed again, the Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge being right there with the steam roller effect to see that no one butted in on Taft's appointments.

"Everything you buy or sell, everything you eat or wear is controlled by the same power that controls the representatives of the people and writes the laws. The power even dares to name the judges on the bench."—La-Follette.

Many Mohammedans massacred by enthusiastic Chinese Buddhists conducting revival services in Shen Si province.

"If, after hearing me, you decide against me, very well. I'll try it again another time."—T. Roosevelt, at Peru, Ind.

What's Teddy trying to do—follow in Bryan's footsteps?

By vote of 22 to 20, Arizona house of representatives reelected Lucero, Trujillo and Cordova, members accused of bribery in connection with U. S. senatorial election.

Isn't it funny that it is so difficult to convince one legislator that another legislator could ever, under any possible circumstances, be crooked.

Just to help along world's record of troubles, citizens of Lhasa, the Forbidden City of Tibet, rose in arms today and massacred a few hundred Chinamen.

"Kansas is for Clark. Let Illinois follow."—Examiner.

Now, why, we wonder, should Illinois follow Kansas.

By appointing Newell Sanders, Chattanooga, to succeed late Robert L. Taylor, as U. S. senator from Tenn., Gov. Hooper has