

SENATE COMMITTEE TAKING TESTIMONY ON CAUSES OF TITANIC DISASTER

This news photograph shows the special senate committee in session in the gorgeous new senate caucus room, where the investigation of the Titanic disaster is going forward. 1, Senator Perkins, of California; 2, Senator Smith of Michigan (chairman); 3, Senator Newlands of Nevada; 4, Senator Fletcher of Florida; 5, J. Bruce Ismay, managing director of the White Star line, who rescued himself. All the men sitting near Ismay along the side of the room are White Star officials.