

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Unidentified man shot and killed himself in woods in Oak Hill district near New Haven, Conn. $400 found in clothes.

Now what in the world do you think any man with $400 wants to commit suicide for?

Italian war office has been officially notified that Turkish governor of Island of Rhodes, his secretaries and four Turkish officers have been captured, and are held as prisoners of war.

Oscar Underwood carried Mississippi Democratic presidential primaries yesterday. Very light vote. That makes Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi in Oscar's string.

Texas county conventions held yesterday give T. Roosevelt and W. Wilson the Republican and Democratic Texas delegates to the national conventions.

Adolphus Busch, 111, son of multi-millionaire brewer of St. Louis, denies he is going to marry Ethel Kelley, actress sister of Mrs. Frank Gould. Ad says he hasn't enough money to support a wife.

Navy department all worked up over floods of wireless love messages from Boston girls to sailors of the Atlantic fleet. Gonna ask congress to put a stop to 'em.

Alice Scherda, stenographer, N. Y., fell and tore her stocking, thus losing all her savings, $225, and a diamond ring.

J. A. Neuner has sued city of Pittsburgh because his 9-year-old son contracted Bright's disease after being vaccinated by the city's order.

5,000 French troops have been ordered to start immediately for Morocco, where unrest among natives is growing daily stronger.

Sea View hotel, Long Beach, Mex., 3 cottages adjoining and all hotel buildings, destroyed by fire, which for hours threatened entire resort.

St. Paul, Minn., have voted for commission form of government. Population 214,744. Will be largest city in U. S. to try out the commission government method.

Rev. C. V. T. Richeson's attorneys say that charge made by Mrs. Louise E. Brittain, once prominent Mormon, that Richeson is a Mormon is ridiculous.

Peanut swallowed by James Purcell, 2 years old, N. Y., caused his death of pneumonia.

Miss Minnie Bischoff, N. Y., has sued estate of late Mary E. Leavitt for $7,000, charging that she dyed the Leavitt hair $9,000 worth, and got only $2,000 for it.

Gee! How much does it cost for Mayme to have her hair dyed right anyhow?

Hank McQuillan, teamster, Detroit, sued Patrolman Wm. Downie for $500 for beating. Downie gave him. Jury awarded Hank 6 cents.

Swedish Olympic Games Committee has ruled against use of oxygen by runners, classifying oxygen as a "drug."

Navy department has ordered battleship Nebraska and gunboat Petrel to give aid to Mississippi