
ODDS AND ENDS FROM SPORT DOINGS

Yesterday's results:

National League—Chicago 9, Boston 8; New York 11, St. Louis 8; Cincinnati 5, Philadelphia 4.

American League—Chicago 7, Washington 6.

It was all Zimmerman yesterday, the "Bronx Biffer" pulling the game out of the fire with a double in the ninth, scoring two men. Before this, Heine had smashed out a homer, with Hoffman on base, and in the 7th, when the Cubs were one run behind, he tripled and scored on Evers' single.

It looked like Boston's game until Zim's double in the final stanza. The Cub manager used four pitchers. Richie, the last to go in, is the winner. "Noisy Jawn" used Hogg, Tyler and Dickson.

Sheckard got 3 bingles and a pass in 5 trips to the pan.

The first battle of 1912 between the Cubs and their ancient rivals, the Giants, will be staged tomorrow.

Johnny Kling shifted the team around with the hope of adding some batting strength. Houser, who has been doing some great pinch-hitting, was placed on first and Arthur Devlin was shifted to short, replacing Jack Spratt. Houser collected a pair of singles.

Ward Miller, the much-heralded recruit, was sent to the plate for Toney in the 8th and drew a pass.

Knocking "Wizard" Johnson out of the box was only a small incident in yesterday's Sox-Senators game. Real features were homers by Lord and Bodie.

It was a tough fight for Washington to lose, as they were doing their best at the end of the game, and creeping up on the Chicago boys in every round. The visitors had cinched the game in the first five in-
