

Liverpool.—Sir Cosmo and Lady Duff-Gordon, Titanic survivors, arrived from New York today. Said: "Go away and don't bother us," when asked about story that they would not let sailors go back to rescue drowning because it might endanger their own precious lives.

Cheyenne, Wyo.—As predicted, Taft and Champ Clark will get Wyoming delegates to Chicago and Baltimore conventions. Steam rollers well used.

New York.—Will of Margaret Sweeney, servant in household of Wm. Hazard for 20 years, leaves $100 each to 5 Hazard children she nursed.

El Paso, Tex.—"I am not dead. On the contrary, I am very much alive."—Telegram from Pasquale Orozco, in answer to query as to report he had been killed by own men.

However much anyone else may doubt Pasquale's word, it's a safe bet that President Madero will believe him.

Boston.—Anthony J. Drexel-Biddle, Philadelphia boxer-evangelist-society man, told conference of Brotherhood of St. Andrew that Christ was an athlete.

New York.—Priest lowered by rope to administer extreme unction to Italian buried in cave-in, while 50 men labored to free him. Buried man died.

Washington.—Injunction suit of Dr. Cecil French to stop crying of 17 babies in Mercy Home near his residence, and the flirtation of their nurses with his young son, dismissed.

Washington.—Hulk of old Spanish ship uncovered by dredge in Potomac river. Rush for "treasure." Zinc. Oh, piffle.

Los Angeles.—Red clad men and women, four abreast and strung out for 3 blocks, marched behind hearse bearing corpse of Joe Milolasek, member of the I. W. W., killed in "Free Speech" war at San Diego.

We can think of no better way of making Socialists and anarchists than by denying to men the right of free speech and killing them when they refuse to be denied that constitutional privilege.

Cambridge, O.—"It's 'I,' 'I,' 'I,' all the time with Mr. Roosevelt. You'd suppose there wasn't anybody else in the country to do this job he talks about but himself."—Taft, getting real excited in his speech here.

And we noticed the first modest little violet of the year peeping from the ground this morning, too.
