

suffragan bishop by Iowa Episcopal convention.

Washington.—Lighthouse tender Armeria, largest in U. S. service, wrecked off Cordova, Alaska. Loss $200,000.

New York.—Foulke E. Brandt to go back to Dannemort prison pending Court of Appeals hearing. Bail denied him.

It surely did sound too good to be true when a mere valet was granted justice against a millionaire. Evidently it was too good to be true.

Sheboygan, Wis.—Frederick Karste, president of German Bank, largest in state outside of Milwaukee, died suddenly yesterday. Bank closed its doors today. Capital $250,000; deposits $3,000,000.

Indianapolis.—State board of accounts charged Jas. Epperson, former mine inspector, with beating it with $6,000 of state's money. Epperson today paid back $2,667.31, but refused to pay any more. State to sue.

Denver.—Jack Curley, promoter of the Johnson-Flynn perhaps-fight, met Marie Drescher here fortnight ago. Curley stayed four days in Denver. Today he sent for her from Las Vegas, where the wedding bells are to chime.

San Francisco.—Morning paper if this city published statement Clarence S. Darrow would confess bribery of George N. Lockwood, McNamara veni-reman, to escape prison sentence.

Los Angeles.—Clarence S. Darrow, the labor attorney, botly denied report of his confession of bribery published in San Francisco. Said story must have been started by prosecution.

Foraker, O.—Fire, fanned by strong wind, has destroyed church and one whole block of business buildings. Entire village threatened.

El Paso.—Fighting at Rellano. Rebels slowly drawing back federals under General Pancho Villa.

Fabens, Tex.—Col. E. Z. Steever, with U. S. calvary and infantry, to see that Mexican federals and rebels "shimmy on their own side of the fence."

Schenectady, N. Y.—Anna Liebenstern dragged from death's door by Dr. Chas. G. McMullen, after operation. Heart stopped beating. Doctor took it in his hand, and made it beat. She'll recover.

Boston.—"Richeson's brain was normal."—Medical Examiner McGrath, who performed autopsy on murderer's body.

London.—Sidney Buxton, president of Board of Trade, under fire in Titanic investigation, blames parliament for loss of life on wrecked vessel because they never bothered about life-boat question until after liner had gone down.

New York.—Louis Faupel, 12. Suicide. Feared school examinations.

London.—Federation of miners declared that under the decision of the minimum wage boards they are unable to make living wages. Want Premier Asquith to amend law.