

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Max Lillie, aviator, fined $10 and costs by Judge Beitler, for landing in Grant Park without permit yesterday.

Lillie is first aviator to be fined on this count. Farnum Fish was arrested for landing in Grant Park, but not fined.

Jane Taylor Quinn case expected to go to jury tonight. No mention of death penalty made by State's Attorney Lowes in final argument.

Four yeggs, masked and armed, bound watchman and employe of Madison laundry, 6018 Madison ave., and tried to blow safe. Frightened off by woman.

Felix Christman, 807 S. State st., knocked down by motor cycle at Wabash and Peck place, chased cyclist for two blocks. Had to quit then.

T. and Dimi Karolis, 18 and 19, Geo. Chrilos and Spiros Jaenaras, 18 and 20, arrested and locked up at Chicago Ave. station on order of Immigration Commissioner Hogan.

Hogan says men are padrones, and that nearly 100 lads, all under age, have been imported from Italy by them in last 30 days.

Senator Lorimer, still weak from recent illness, prepared for departure to Washington to fight minority report on his election, today.

Milk dealers still threatening to boost prices if pure milk ordinance passes city council.

Mrs. Stefano Sitka, 953 West ave. Bottle of gasoline. St. Mary's hospital. Died there.

"Jack the Hugger" gathered Edna Behm, 1916 Eddy st., into his arms at Byron and Robey. Edna and friend, Cecilia Lucas, beat him up.

Edw. Gill, 535 W. 56th pl. Live wire. May recover.

Chester W. Church to make fight for state secretaryship. Defeated by late James A. Rose in April. Thinks job is coming to him.

Chester is mistaken. Governor Deneen has eye on C. J. Doyle, Greenfield, present state fire marshal.

Six undergrads of Garrett Biblical Institute ducked in Lake Michigan by 50 husky Northwestern University men.

Aviator Max Lillie lost in skies trying to keep dinner engagement last night. Landed on farm west of Cicero.

Lillie carried Miss Katherine Stinson to lunch at Columbia Yacht club from Cicero aviation field at noon.

Angelo Delguidece and unidentified Italian boy, last during parade yesterday, held by police at S. Clark st. station for parents.

Man whose notebook had name of N. Migue, Newport, R. I., died on sleeper of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, 2 miles out of Chicago.

Man found wandering in Lincoln Park didn't know Andy Lawrence was real mayor of Chicago. Locked up for safe keeping.

Wm. White, 4402 Ellis av., struck by Wentworth av. car at W. 67th blvd. Killed.