

SPORT DOINGS

Yesterday's Results.

American League—Boston, 7, Philadelphia 2; Washington 3-10, New York 2-2; Cleveland 8, Detroit 6.

National League—New York 2-10, Brooklyn 1-8; Philadelphia 8, Boston 5.

Neither Chicago team played yesterday.

Two games for all teams today.

Walsh will probably pitch this afternoon against Cleveland on the South Side.

Athletics pulled all kinds of stunts yesterday. They raised the world's championship pennant, and also the percentage of the Boston Red Sox.

Coombs was easy for Boston, yielding 10 hits.

Ray Collins puzzled the Mackmen.

Rube Marquard made it 19 straight yesterday and the Giants won their 16th game in a row.

Rucker was pitted against Marquard in the first game, and outpitched him, holding the Giants to 4 hits. The Rube was stung nine times.

He was strong in the pinches, and staved off scores.

The second game was a slugging match, and again Brooklyn outbatted the Giants, 17 hits to 9.

New York scored tying and winning runs in eighth, when Erwin made a bad throw. Dahlen was put out of the game for kicking on decision at the plate.

Washington trimmed Yankees in both games of a double-header.

Jim Vaughn, ex-Yankee, pitched Washington to victory over his old pals in first battle.

Walter Johnson was taken out in sixth inning of second game, when Washington had a safe lead.

Musser, a recruit, finished in good style.

Warhop and Fisher were easy for Nationals in both games.

Eddie Foster, Chicago boy with Washington, batted out four hits during the afternoon.

Cleveland and Detroit each made 11 hits, but Nap swats were more opportune.

Ty Cobb scored two hits to Jackson.

Detroit rallied in ninth and made four runs. Delehanty ended the game by hitting into a double play with two on and one out.

Left Fielder raney fell while chasing fly and fractured his right shoulder. He is a left-handed thrower.

Philadelphia Nationals bunched hits and made 7 runs in last three innings, nosing out Boston.

Hess puzzled Quakers in early part of the game.

Dode Paskert tore off four hits, one a double.

Roy Miller, secured from Boston, is being used as a pinch hitter by the Phils, and making good. He pinched in eighth with a double.

Returns from the Johnson-Flynn fight should begin coming in about 4 o'clock. The bout is scheduled to begin at 3 o'clock, Chicago time, and the preliminary bunk will take some time.