

Thompsonville, Conn.—William Bay, oldest man in Connecticut, had lived long enough to know that it was against law of state to sell liquor and groceries and was arrested.

Washington.—Treasury estimates that there are 1,952,131,861 pennies in circulation.

Washington.—Sen. Hoke Smith is trying to have all colored policemen fired from Washington force.

Washington.—Daughters of American Revolution is fighting treasury plan to remove Goddess of Liberty design from 5-cent piece and substitute buffalo head.

Yonkers, N. Y.—Martha Boston received postcard from Chas. Williams showing picture of man spanking girl, and had him arrested for making threats.

Joliet, Ill.—Frank Jackson, carpenter, has inherited $6,000,000 estate in England. Will leave Thursday.

Seagirt, N. J.—Wilson left for Trenton, where, among other engagements, he has one with Samuel Gompers and other officers of American Federation of Labor. Will make his stand on labor question clear.

St. Louis.—Mrs. Frank Young, to evade deputy sheriff who wished to serve papers for divorce suit filed by husband, took refuge in bath tub. Deputy, being a gentleman, waited. After three hours she gave up and accepted service.

Lafayette, Ind.—George Strobel, proprietor American Hotel, is dying as result of 5-days' spell of hiccoughing.

Washington.—James B. Reynolds, member of tariff board, chosen as sec'y of Republican National Committee to succeed Wm. Hayward, Jr.

San Francisco.—Body of Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, suffragist and reform worker, who died here following operation, was taken today to Denver.

Pipestone, Minn.—Bodies of 2 small sons of Peter Estergard, horribly burned, found in ashes of hay stack.

San Francisco.—Thieves stole $10,000 worth of gems from home of Edward W. Hopkins, wealthy business man, while family were golfing. Pinkertons on case.

San Francisco.—Promoter Cofroth said that there will be no hitch in Abe Attell-Tommy Murphy fight, scheduled for Aug. 3.

New York.—Police have as yet secured no clue to murderer of Julia Connors, 12, who was enticed into flat, outraged and stabbed.

Lakewood, N. J.—Prof. Chas. A. Strong, son-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, has decided to make his home at American colony, Florence, Italy.

Pittsburgh.—2 dead and many prostrated as result of heat in last 24 hours. 90 degrees.

Aurora, Ill.—800 men, entire day force, walked out on strike when D. E. Carey was re-engaged as general superintendent.

—o—o—
A novel low shoe, which is excellent for wear with a linen suit, is of suede leather, lacing and tying at the side.