

Grappling hooks were lowered, and the little body recovered. When she saw the puffed, distorted face of the child, Mrs. Reidan would have thrown herself into the lake. But the police stopped her.

The police buried the baby today. And they booked Mrs. Reidan on a charge of murder.

But the women of Indiana Harbor will fight for her. They will plead that she was driven insane by privation and suffering.

THIS LOCOMOTIVE HAS "BRAINS"

New engine photographed on its own track near Watchet, England.

This engine, recently invented by an Australian, A. R. Angus, can pick up electrical messages announcing the approach of another train, and not only shut off its own steam and stop, but can prevent any other train approaching too closely. It is being tried out on a track built especially for it near the village of Watchet, England, 12 miles long with no stations, signal boxes or other appliances of up-to-date railroads.

"Lucy, dear, if I should attempt to spell 'Cupid,' why should I be prevented from getting beyond the first syllable?" Lucy gave it up, whereupon William said: "Because, when I come to 'C-u,' I cannot go farther."

Oldum—There's only one way to accomplish your purpose, and that is, "Stick to it."

Youngman—But suppose your purpose is to remove a sheet of fly paper that you've sat down upon?
