

cause of the continued illness of E. A. Bancroft, chief consul for the company.

George Miller, 50, 2436 Jackson blvd., brushed off rear of Western av. car by wagon. Severely injured.

Senator-elect Ollie James, Kentucky, here today to confer with Congressman A. S. Burleson, manager of the Wilson speakers' bureau.

Gov. Marshall may not speak here at all during this campaign, according to announcement from Democratic headquarters today.

Policeman Deennan, discharged by merit commission. Charged with failure to report quick enough to scene of trouble.

Polly Grigorchiek, 22, trailed John Iachuk, tailor, 726 W. 19th st., from Russia here. Had him arrested. John sentenced to 6 months in bridewell on serious charges.

Fire in Morris & Co. plant, Stock Yards. $1,000 loss.

Prize Boston terrier chased burglars from home of F. C. Sparling, 2957 S. Michigan ave.

Union club disbanded. Gave building at 51 Washington pl. to Salvation Army, who will remodel and have home for working girls getting under $15 a week.

Nicholas Jefferson, 2920 E. 97th st., switchman, crushed between freight trains. Dead.

A foreign doctor visiting here says stock yards is cleanest part of city.

C., R. I. & P. train struck auto truck at 89th and Morgan sts.

George Hauptman and John Ellis, 10636 Vincennes road, seriously injured.

Health commission to take up rabies question.

Sister Mary Agnes Hickey, Visitation academy, Evanston, celebrated 50th anniversary as a nun today.

Hearing of case of Lawrence J. Coffey, county commissioner, arrested for disorderly conduct, continued to Oct. 8.

Michael McNamara, 7849 Winneconna ave., fireman on M. C. Ry., stuck head out of cab. Hit board of lumber car. Seriously injured.

"Enforcement of the pure food law has increased cost of living." —Dr. E. N. Eaton, former chief chemist of Illinois pure food commission.

Judgment against city for $10,000 returned in favor of widow and children of Bartholomew Cloonan, fireman who was fatally injured while answering fire alarm at Fisk and W. 22nd sts.

Mrs. George Downey, 7262 union ave., granted divorce.

Police of Evanston peeved because they can't find chicken thief.

Ralph Laries, 21 Ann st., held to grand jury. $2,000 bonds. Charged with theft.

Capital stock of corporations of Cook county is worth $36,082,665.

Charles Costa, 7038 Princeton ave., auto speeder. $10 and costs.

A. H. Weber, 812 Junior terrace, speeded. $25 and costs.

Vincent Filer, 10, 3045 Butler