

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Case of Louise Lindloff continued until Monday night when it will go into the hands of jury.

James Merrick, 2441 Sheffield av., robbed of $2.40 by man and woman at Shields av. and W. 28th st.

Arthur Lamke held up by two men at Leland and N. 72d avs. They escaped with $9.34.

With the exception of Judge Windes' court, in which is the trial of Mrs. Louise Lindloff, all the county, municipal and federal courts were closed today on account of the funeral of Vice President Sherman.

With a monster parade and mass meeting tonight, Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for president, planned to wind up his campaign and return to his home in Terre Haute, Ind.

Grain trading was suspended here today on account of the funeral of Vice President Sherman.

A selected audience of 99 invited guests will see the play, "Womankind," at the opening of the "Little Theater" here on the night of Nov. 12. That's all the theater can seat.

A. S. Ackerman, arrested on his wife's complaint that he deserted her, told Judge Gemmill he left home because his wife compelled him to sleep with a Spitz dog.

Michael Catlice, 5221 Gladys av., severely injured when struck by 52d av. car at Madison st.

Auto of E. D. Peifer, 319 N.

53d av., struck buggy at N. Robey st. and Washington blvd. Arthur Tanner, 214 N. May st.; Joseph Ball, 2661 N. Halsted st., and Miss Anna Smith, 1615 Rice st., slightly injured.

Sir Thomas Lipton will leave here for Winnipeg early tomorrow.

Policeman D. J. Sullivan arrested Wm. Duggan, conductor on C., M. & St. P. Ry. Duggan ran. Sullivan shot hitting Duggan in side. Duggan in hospital. Critical condition.

H. W. Bullard, San Francisco, arrested here charged with operating confidence game.

H. M. VanHoesen Co., printers, is suing Progressive Republican League for $600. Suit is for campaign literature surrendered to defendant during primary campaign.

Two robbers entered home of Mrs. Mary Wojcek, 1501 W. Superior st. Threatened her with revolvers. She knocked them from their hands with broom. They fled.

Porch climber entered home of Ed Hines, Evanston and escaped with $37.

Edward F. Drew, auto salesman, says his wife left him and went to Europe shortly after the wedding. He got his divorce.

W. A. Dotts, 55, 1035 N. Lawndale ave., killed by elevator in building at 219 W. South Water street.

U. of C. straw votes—Professors: Roosevelt 60, Wilson 56,