

head designer in ladies' clothing dep't of big department store, killed himself because he could not cope with new styles.

Washington.—James Bryce, English ambassador to U. S. since 1907, has resigned. Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice, present minister to Stockholm, may be successor.

Michigan City, Mich.—Mrs. Henry Webber, who last week made sensational charges against well-known young man, tried suicide by standing on car tracks. Five men saved her. Believed insane.

Sioux Falls, S. D.—Leonard Thicket, 13, accidentally shot and killed by his brother, 16.

Loretta, Minn.—Mrs. George Pagenhopf, 47, and Mrs. Claude R. McGary, 38, killed, and Grace Pagenhopf, 9, injured by Soo-Spokane flyer.

Boston.—Sir William Ramsay, British scientist, is working on world language based on Chinese.

Lewistown, Pa.—John C. Nipple, 21, died as result of being accidentally shot by William Campbell while hunting.

St. Louis.—Adeline Gritman, pretty and young, wore gold bracelet on ankle and succeeded in waking up St. Louis.

Mexico City.—Gen. Geronimi Thevino, who recently resigned from army, suggested as provisional president of Mexico.

Hot Springs, Ark.—Champ Clark said he would not accept cabinet position if it were offered him.

Milwaukee.—Fred Schendle,

44, kissed four small children, took wife in arms and drank carbolic acid. Died.

Milwaukee.—Local police searching for May Topping, teacher, who disappeared from her home in Delavan, Wis., several days ago.

Decatur, Ill.—Charles Verner, who shot and killed his wife and then turned the gun on self, died today.

Kenosha, Wis.—Body of Capt. S. C. Bennett, who disappeared from local sanitarium several days ago, found in Pike river.

Duluth.—Five persons injured, 3 probably fatally, when auto driven by Murdock MacDonald, Virginia, Minn., fell down steep embankment.

Havana.—Col. Isidro Acea, leader in recent negro revolution, shot and killed while resisting arrest.

Brookdale, Ill.—Oscar Garside hung fur auto coat on tree while he stopped to fix auto. Hunter mistook coat for bear. It would make a fine sieve now.

Starville, Mass.—Gov. Brewer broke up strike at State Agricultural College by ordering 6 seniors expelled.

Cincinnati.—John Yrion, 30, shot and killed his father, Richard Yrion, 55, because elder man had called him lazy.

Eagle River, Wis.—August Osterburg, 17, shot and killed by some hunter who mistook him for a deer. Hunter escaped.

Minneapolis.—Entire milling district may be destroyed by fire that is still raging.